What is a National Heritage Area?

National Heritage Areas (NHAs) are designated by Congress as places where natural, cultural, and historic resources combine to form a cohesive, nationally important landscape. Through their resources, NHAs tell nationally important stories that celebrate our nation's diverse heritage.

Looking for Lincoln unfolds the rich history and story of Mr. Lincoln's life and times across the 43-county Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area encompassing over 30 years of his life spent in Illinois. Be prepared to be inspired by experiencing through stories and storytellers, the facts, the figures, the places, the events, the impact of Lincoln's humble beginnings to his presidency of the United States.

No matter what your historic adventure is comprised of - from the elaborate Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum, to the warm Lincoln Home National Historic Site, to inspirational history programs, to an informative wayside exhibit history trail stop - you will feel welcomed and sense the passion of the communities sharing Lincoln's history.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY AND MUSEUM

Springfield presidentlincoln.illinois.gov

Get ready to be entertained, educated, and yes, mesmerized! From the humble beginnings of a young pioneer to his rise to the presidency, the story of Lincoln's life and times is captured through original artifacts, a partial reproduction of the 1860s White House, special effects theaters with ghostly images and high action, and so much more.

BRYANT COTTAGE STATE HISTORIC SITE

Bement enjoyillinois.com/explore/listing/bryant-cottage

Step into the historic parlor where Stephen Douglas and Abraham Lincoln met on July 29, 1858 to negotiate their seven joint discussions that would famously become known as the Lincoln-Douglas Debates. History credits these debates as helping to launch Lincoln's Presidential candidacy two years later. This historic site also tells the story of the home owner Francis Bryant and his family.

C. H. MOORE HOMESTEAD

Clinton chmoorehomestead.org

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the restored, fully-furnished mansion and spacious grounds whisk visitors back to the Victorian era. The historic house was once home to Clinton attorney, Clifton H. Moore. Visitors will enjoy tours of the mansion and carriage barn, view special exhibits and displays, including stories of the law partnership, political ties, and friendship shared by C.H. Moore and Abraham Lincoln during Lincoln's time in DeWitt County.

David Davis Mansion
Bloomington

DAVID DAVIS MANSION STATE HISTORIC SITE

Bloomington daviddavismansion.org

Gaze through a window into the social and political life Lincoln knew at this stately 19th century mansion once owned by his friend, Judge David Davis and his wife, Sarah. History attributes part of Lincoln's success in obtaining the presidential nomination from the influence and support of Judge Davis.

Fithian House & Vermilion County Museum
Danville

FITHIAN HOUSE & VERMILION COUNTY MUSEUM

Danville vermilioncountymuseum.org

Taking a stroll down Vermilion Street in Danville, circa 1850, you may very well have run into a tall, gangly, somewhat unkempt young attorney, rushing from his office to the nearby courthouse. That young man, probably wearing a tall stovepipe hat, would have been none other than Mr. Abraham Lincoln. Lincoln practiced law here for about 18 years as he traveled the now famous 8th Judicial Circuit in Illinois. Explore the Vermilion County Museum, replicating that early courthouse, as well as the adjacent Fithian Home, a Lincoln site on the National Register of Historic Places. Here you'll find many stories surrounding the people and places in the life of Lincoln the lawyer. Danville is an excellent jumping-off point to explore eastern Illinois.

HISTORIC NAUVOO

Nauvoov beautifulnauvoov.com

Experience the lives of the early members of the Mormon church who settled along the banks of the Mississippi River in 1839 as the people of Old Nauvoov set the stage for one aspect of prairie life from 1839-1846. Over 30 historic attractions are brought to life through year round living history interpreters and performers who tell the story of these early Illinoisans.

HISTORY MUSEUM ON THE SQUARE

Quincy hsqac.org/history-museum

The History Museum on the Square houses permanent and rotating installations, displays, and artifacts from the pioneer era through modern times. A unique feature of the structure is the large, circular corner tower over the front entrance. A sculpture garden on the grounds features architectural artifacts from Quincy buildings that are no longer in existence. Many exhibits interpret the life and times of Lincoln.

JOHN WOOD MANSION

Quincy hsqac.org/john-wood-mansion

Once the home of John Wood, Quincy's founder and Illinois' 12th Governor, the John Wood Mansion was home to a friend and supporter of Abraham Lincoln. The Wood family moved into their third Quincy home from a nearby, two-story log cabin in 1837. Later, the mansion was moved from its original site to its current location, about a block east, so Wood could build an even larger, octagonal mansion that was demolished in the 1950s.

LINCOLN DOUGLAS DEBATE MUSEUM

Charleston charlestonillinois.org

Tour the only museum in Illinois retracing the senatorial debates of 1858 between Abraham Lincoln and Stephan Douglas. The museum offers exhibits and interactive displays that tell the debates' story through film, audio selections, artifacts, and photos.

Discover New Philadelphia

Founded in 1836 by Frank McWorter, a freedman, New Philadelphia is the first town in our nation founded and legally registered by an African American. In addition to founding this racially diverse community where African Americans and European Americans lived together in one of the most racially turbulent eras and regions of our country's history, Frank McWorter purchased freedom for himself and at least fifteen additional family members—all through his own enterprises.

This National Historic Site was recently designated the country's 424th National Park. Located three miles east of Barry, Illinois, visitors will find:

- A pavilion with six interpretive wayside signs
- A self-guided augmented reality walking tour using a free downloadable app
- A butterfly garden and pollinator plot

You may also validate your Passport to Your National Parks booklet with the official NPS Underground Railroad Network to Freedom stamp at Barry City Hall or the Barry Museum.

Explore this historically significant site and learn about the perseverance of Frank McWorter!

Decatur and Macon County have a landscape rich in Lincoln history. Many "firsts" in Lincoln's life happened in and around Decatur. It was the first home of the Lincoln family when they moved to Illinois. Downtown Decatur was the site of Lincoln's very first political speech, and it was here that he was first nominated for the Presidency at the State Republican Party Convention. Today, the log courthouse where those cases were heard still exists in the Prairie Village at the Macon County History Museum

When the nation's struggle over slavery was the largest talk in political debates in 1858, Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas reached a tipping point at the second of their seven debates in Freeport. Painted into a corner by Lincoln's questioning, Douglas shed light on his true feelings regarding slave ownership and rights in what is now known as the "Freeport Doctrine." This pivotal moment can be traced to a movement that eventually won Lincoln the presidency in 1860.

LINCOLN

Destination Logan County
101 North Chicago Street, Lincoln
(217) 732-8687
destinationlogancountyil.com

The only town to be named for Lincoln – before he became President, Lincoln has a rich connection with this city and Logan County. As a lawyer on the 8th Judicial Circuit, Lincoln argued many cases at Postville Courthouse, a state historic site. The Lincoln Heritage Museum houses an amazing collection of rare Lincoln artifacts, including treasures such as china, books, and mourning clothing belonging to Mary Lincoln, as well as original correspondence from President Lincoln written during the Civil War.

Unforgettable Forgottonia – Macomb Area Convention and Visitors Bureau
120 E. Calhoun St. #1, Macomb
(309) 833-1315
visitforgottonia.com

Located in the western Illinois region legendarily know as Unforgettable Forgottonia, the charming community of Macomb has several Lincoln connections. The focal point is the unique Living Lincoln Topiary Monument in which live flowering plants create Lincoln's beard, making it the only one of its kind in the world. It serves as the centerpiece of a 10 site self-guided tour which employs the use of QR-codes linking users to photos, information and videos of Lincoln himself explaining the sites via their mobile phones. The tour includes, among others: the McDonough County Courthouse grounds where Lincoln twice spoke, the Randolph House where he stayed on at least three occasions, a cemetery where civil war veterans, former slaves, Underground Rail Road conductors and friends of Lincoln rest, and the site at which one of the earliest photos of Lincoln was taken.

PARIS

Paris Area Chamber of Commerce & Tourism
105 North Central Street, Paris
(217) 465-4179
parisilchamber.com

The county was part of the Eighth Judicial Circuit from 1845 until 1853. During those years, Lincoln tried 50 cases in Paris, the county seat. Edgar County was one of the most populated counties on the circuit, and his legal practice here was instrumental in furthering his political career. Lincoln was also in the county in 1856 and 1858 giving political speeches. Milton Alexander, a prominent man in Paris, often entertained Abraham Lincoln and Stephen Douglas at his home when they were in town.

PETERSBURG

History comes alive in New Salem at this reconstructed historic pioneer village where Lincoln lived and worked as a young man. Just two miles to the north, you'll find the picturesque community of Petersburg, where many of New Salem's residents are buried in the historic Oakland Cemetery – including Ann Rutledge – believed by many to be Lincoln's sweetheart during his time in New Salem. Famed author, Edgar Lee Masters, lived here and wrote about Lincoln and many inhabitants of New Salem. His home still stands in Petersburg.

PIKE COUNTY

Located along the mighty Mississippi, Quincy was a frequent stop for Mr. Lincoln where he counted some of its residents among his closest friends. Visit the historic Lincoln-Douglas debate site and Lincoln-Douglas Interpretive Center in the heart of downtown. Tour the home of famed abolitionist and Underground Railroad conductor, Dr. Richard Eells, whose case was heard by the U.S. Supreme Court. Get to know one of Lincoln's close political allies, John Wood, as you explore his impressive mansion. Wood was a founder of Quincy, and Illinois' 12th governor.

SHELBYVILLE

Lake Shelbyville Area Convention & Visitors Bureau
315 East Main Street, Shelbyville
(217) 774-2244
lakeshelbyville.com

In his years as a circuit-riding attorney, Lincoln was often in Shelbyville practicing his trade at the Shelby County Courthouse. The Courthouse features a painting of the Lincoln-Thornton Debate. While the Lincoln-Douglas Debates are certainly more famous, the earlier Thornton Debate was Lincoln's first public appearance as a Republican and the first time he publicly addressed the anti-slavery notions that would be so important in his later years. This charming community overlooking beautiful Lake Shelbyville is a must-stop on your Lincoln adventure.

visitspringfieldillinois.com

Located in the heart of the Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area, Springfield is the city Lincoln called home for nearly half his life. Springfield and central Illinois had a profound effect on Lincoln's life, as captured in these immortal words, "To this place, and the kindness of these people, I owe everything." Today, Springfield, Illinois' capital city, is home to numerous historic sites, attractions and events – including the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum, the Lincoln Home National Historic Site, the Lincoln Tomb, the Old State Capitol and the popular "History Comes Alive" program. In this city he loved, you'll truly experience Lincoln, the man.

TAYLORVILLE

Taylorville is often referred to as "the last stop" because when Lincoln and other lawyers traveling the 8th Judicial Circuit arrived here, it was usually their last stop before heading home to Springfield. The downtown courthouse square features the only statue of Abraham Lincoln with a pig commemorating Lincoln's famous "writ of quietus." The old courthouse that was the site of many Lincoln trials has been preserved at the Christian County Historical Museum complex. Totally restored using original construction specifications, this 1839 building includes interior furnishings echoing courtrooms of the period.

The capital city of Illinois from 1820-1839, Vandalia was the place where a young Abraham Lincoln officially began his political career as an elected state legislator from the village of New Salem in 1834. Mr. Lincoln would play an important role of the controversial effort to move the state capital to the city of Springfield. Today, the Vandalia Statehouse stands as an elegant reminder of Illinois' early history as a new state. Nearby is the Fayette County Museum, featuring Lincoln-era memorabilia and the story of the people of Vandalia and Fayette County.

The Lincoln Danville Knew

Danville & Vermilion County

Taking a stroll down Vermilion St in Danville (1850), you may well have run into a tall, gangly, somewhat unkempt young man, wearing a stovetop hat, rushing from his office to the nearby courthouse. Danville knew that young man well, as Abe Lincoln practiced law here from 1841-1859 as he traveled the now famous 8th Judicial Circuit in Illinois.

Today, Danville is proud to be part of the Looking for Lincoln National Heritage Area, home to the Vermilion County Museum, replicating that early courthouse, and adjacent to the Fithian Home. (Lincoln site on the National Register of Historic Places).

"If I find I have blessings at my disposal, Old Vermilion will come in for a bountiful share."

HIGHWAYS & BYWAYS

FIND A ROAD TRIP OF EXPLORATION LIKE NO OTHER.

Brick Section of Route 66
Auburn

Travel Illinois as Mr. Lincoln did as a prairie lawyer winding your way through the landscape of the Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area. Five different roads designated as American Scenic Byways, including the famous Route 66, each leading you on a drive of discovery with attractions and sites steeped in history of Lincoln's past travel journeys.

LET'S GO HIT THE ROAD

GET YOUR KICKS ON ROUTE 66!

Two distinct times in American history overlap in Central Illinois: Lincoln and Route 66. Discover even more amazing stories of our nation.

GREAT RIVER ROAD IN ILLINOIS

greatriverroad-illinois.org

For over 500 miles on Illinois' western border, you'll find the breathtaking views and majestic landscapes along the mighty Mississippi. And, for many of those miles, you'll be traveling in the Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area. Explore the country Lincoln loved as he rode from town to town as a prairie lawyer and a future president. Enjoy the banks and bluffs, the fields and prairies, and the waterways just as travelers during Lincoln's day would have experienced.

HISTORIC NATIONAL ROAD

nationalroad.org

America's first highway, known as the Historic National Road, was built on big plans to join the already civilized East Coast with the western frontier. From 1830 to 1838, as a young Abraham Lincoln was finding his way as a prairie lawyer and state legislator, construction of the Illinois portion of the road was underway. Although by the 1850s, railroads became the preferred method of East-West travel in the U.S. The Illinois section of the National Road holds the stories of nearly two centuries of American history.

ILLINOIS RIVER ROAD

illinoisriverroad.org

On the Illinois River Road, you'll travel the same path as early French explorers. Whether you want to hike the bluff trails, bike the historic canal towpaths, throw in a fishing line, canoe in one of the beautifully restored wetlands along the way, or just soak in the natural beauty as you travel between Looking for Lincoln communities – this is the perfect chance to immerse yourself in the rich history and beauty of the Illinois River Valley.

ILLINOIS ROUTE 66

illinoisroute66.org

U.S. Route 66 is arguably one of the most famous roads in the world, and part of that iconic road crisscrosses the Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area in Illinois. For generations of travelers, Route 66 represents the freedom of the road – the chance to leave the everyday behind and step back to a simpler time – to the main streets of small town America. Mr. Lincoln may have made his road trips on the back of a horse or in a buggy, but your trip along Illinois Route 66 will let you follow his trail through central Illinois.

MEETING OF THE GREAT RIVERS

riversandroutess.com

Return to a time of simplicity and American values along the Meeting of the Great Rivers National Scenic Byway where the mighty Mississippi, Missouri, and Illinois Rivers converge. The 33-mile Byway meanders its way through the Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area, beginning in Hartford and ending in Grafton at Pere Marquette State Park. Make plans to explore the spectacular scenery, archaeological finds, historic happenings, cultural experiences and memorable recreation along the way.

I&M CANAL

The Nation's First National Heritage Area

The Illinois & Michigan Canal was the nation's first National Heritage Area and overlaps the northernmost edge of the Abraham Lincoln National Heritage Area. The I&M Canal NHA is an outdoor museum where visitors can explore the diverse stories of this living landscape. It's a place to walk in the footsteps of Native Americans, French Explorers and Voyagers, canal workers, immigrants and even Abraham Lincoln. As a member of the Illinois legislature, Lincoln voted for the construction of the canal, served as a canal commissioner, and traveled along it as a canal boat passenger.

Discover these and many other stories as you explore the I&M Canal National Heritage Area. Take a ride on a canal boat, ride a bike on the towpath trail, or visit a historic canal town.
