

The Herbert Hoover Presidential Library is both a museum and a center for scholarly research. The museum exhibits depict Herbert Hoover's career as a mining engineer followed by fifty years of public service. Films are shown daily during June, July, and August.

Herbert Hoover Presidential Library
National Archives and Records Service
General Services Administration

