

Apostle Islands National Lakeshore

Raspberry Island Lighthouse

The Raspberry Island Lighthouse opened in July 1863. One of a series of lighthouses that helped open the Lake Superior region to westward expansion, this beacon of light helped provide access to the area's rich timber, fish, and mineral resources.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/apis

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE