

Big Cypress National Preserve

Florida Panther

Florida Panther

Predator or protector? As predators, panthers prey on species like deer, raccoons, and wild hogs. By preying on weak and sick animals, panthers actually protect these species by keeping populations healthy. Panthers are under threat from human activity and need protection. Help by slowing down in panther zones while driving and keep pets and livestock in panther-proof enclosures.

Want more information?
Scan this code!

