

Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park

67th OHIO INFANTRY,
VAN DERVEER'S BRIGADE,
BRANNAN'S DIVISION,
14th ARMY CORPS.

9th Ohio Infantry Regiment

German Freedom Fighters

More than 200,000 German immigrants served in the Union Army during the Civil War. Many enlisted to end slavery and earned a reputation for strict discipline and effectiveness. At Snodgrass Hill, the 9th Ohio, a German regiment from Cincinnati, held their position against repeated Confederate attacks until the end of the battle.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/chch

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE