

Great Falls Park

George Washington Memorial Parkway

Dave Jacobson

Canada Geese

Typical Habitat & When Found:

Smaller flocks gather year-round on the Potomac River above the waterfalls and the shore along the North River Trail.

Great Falls Park supports larger flocks during the spring and fall migrations which stop over for rest and food.

Bird song: honks, cackles, and hisses.

Importance to the park: Aids with the dispersal of plant seeds.