

NATIONAL PARKS COLLECTION

GENERAL GRANT

GENERAL GRANT NATIONAL MEMORIAL

NEW YORK

General Grant National Memorial, popularly known as Grant's Tomb, is the final resting place of Ulysses S. Grant and his wife Julia Dent Grant. Designed by architect John Duncan, the granite and marble tomb was completed in 1897 and is the largest mausoleum in North America.

SPECIAL INFORMATION

With the exception of January 1, Thanksgiving Day, and December 25, the Memorial is open daily between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5 p.m. • Site Supervisor, General Grant National Memorial, Riverside Drive and 122nd Street, New York, NY 10003, (212)666-1640.