

Navajo National Monument, Ariz., embracing all cliff-dwelling and pueblo ruins between the parallel of latitude $36^{\circ} 30'$ and 37° north and longitude 110° and $110^{\circ} 45'$ west from Greenwich, with 40 acres of land in square form around each of said ruins, as originally created March 20, 1909.