

Big South Fork
National River and Recreation Area

Julia Marcum

Julia was the only woman to be granted a pension for Civil War service. In 1861, she used an axe to defend herself and her family from an attack by Confederate soldiers who invaded her home. Her pension was awarded by a special Act of Congress in 1884.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/biso

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE