

Our spires inspire...

COLORADO NATIONAL MONUMENT

A unit of the National Park Service

"I came here last year and found these canyons, and they feel like the heart of the world to me."

—John Otto, 1907

Just off I-70 between Grand Junction and Fruita, Colorado

A Glimpse Inside millions of years

A journey through the canyons of the Colorado National Monument reveals a story told in stone of millions of years of erosion, changing climate, and dramatic geological upheavals.

- Spectacular and historic 23-mile Rim Rock Drive
- Hiking trails of varying lengths, from easy to challenging
- Visitor Center and campgrounds
- High desert wildlife

West (Fruita) Entrance

COLORADO
NATIONAL MONUMENT

East (Grand Junction) Entrance

For further information, visit www.nps.gov/colm or www.coloradonma.org
Call 970 858-3617, Ext. 360

Official nonprofit partner of the Colorado National Monument

2016
National Park Service
CENTENNIAL

