

To be a Curecanti B.A.R.K. Ranger learn the B.A.R.K. Code and complete at least one activity listed below:

Hike a Trail

All trails in Curecanti National Recreation Area are dog friendly on a leash, as some trails go through critical wildlife habitat.

Play in One of the Lakes

Enjoy 96 miles of shoreline that Blue Mesa has to offer, and remember to use a poop bag and dispose of it in the trash.

Go for a Boat Ride

Hang out on a boat with your pup. Go paddleboarding, out on a motorboat, canoeing or any other boating you do best. Remember your PFD!

Learn the B.A.R.K. Code

Follow the Code as you play and hangout in Curecanti National Recreation area.

Return to the Elk Creek Visitor Center During Business Hours to Claim the B.A.R.K. Ranger Dog Tag and to be sworn in as a Curecanti B.A.R.K. Ranger.

I, _____, and my human companion promise to respect the B.A.R.K. Ranger Code when visiting National Park Service Sites

Park Ranger

Date

The Curecanti B.A.R.K. Ranger program is free! Ask a ranger about what sites are open to dogs and what safety precautions should be taken. After the ranger has signed your B.A.R.K. wallet card you can cut it out and carry it with you.

B. A. R. K. stands for:

B= Bag Your Pet's Waste

A= Always Leash Your Pet

R= Respect Wildlife

K= Know Where You Can Go

When you post photos of your pets on your social media site, be sure to use #BarkRanger. Browse photos of B.A.R.K. Rangers and join a community of thousands from across the nation and the world!
