

Immigrant Soldiers

Military service offered an opportunity for many recent immigrants to Civil War era America, especially men from Ireland. The design on this nineteenth century tobacco pipe, found in an Army trash site at Fort Vancouver, shows the importance these soldiers placed on their Irish heritage.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/fova

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE