Take home a memory...

Relax and enjoy your SceniCruise

Glacier SceniCruises often become adventures in the wilderness for hikers. A number of opportunities are available for short day-hikes with return on later cruises. Here a group enjoys the hike from the landing on St. Mary Lake to St. Mary Falls. Some hikes are Ranger-Naturalist guided, while others are on your own. Just be sure to check the schedule for boat return times.

Whether you take a Sunset SceniCruise or one under the warming sun, you'll find your Glacier Park Boat Co. hosts knowledgeable and friendly...helpful and informative. Your trip is made more enjoyable by their factual, interesting and personalized commentaries. Relax and enjoy your SceniCruise in Glacier Park.

Wilderness SceniCruise Boat Tours

All times shown are Mountain Daylight Time: cruises may be cancelled at captain's discretion for reasons of passenger safety, or if less than four adult fares are present. All services and rates are approved by the National Park Service.

Many Glacier

Enjoy unique, awe-inspiring views. Several of the Park's larger glaciers can be seen from a Many Glacier SceniCruise. Cross Swiftcurrent Lake, take a short .2-mile walk, then board another launch to the head of Lake Josephine. Boat schedule accommodates hiking and picnicking in the back country. Inquire about the Sunset Familiarization Cruise—30-minute duration, traversing Swiftcurrent Lake only. Reservations suggested.

From July 10 to end of August, an 8:30 a.m. cruise is added for hikers to Grinnell Glacier, accompanied by a Ranger-Naturalist. Hiking distance to the glacier is reduced by about half.

EXCEPTIONS TO SCHEDULES BELOW: June & Sept. departures reduced to 9, 11, 2 & 4 o'clock cruises only.
