

DAIRY: HAMPTON PLANTATION OUTBUILDINGS

TOWSON VICINITY                      BALTIMORE COUNTY                      MARYLAND

THIS STRUCTURE IS ONE OF THE MOST INTERESTING BUILDINGS IN THE COMPLEX OF PLANTATION OUTBUILDINGS THAT SERVED HAMPTON, THE HOME OF THE RIDGELY FAMILY FROM 1790-1948. THE BUILDING AND ITS ENCLOSING WALLS ARE BEAUTIFULLY INTEGRATED WITH THE SITE, SET INTO THE SIDE OF A HILL AND STRADDLING THE RUN FROM A SMALL SPRING WHICH SERVES AS A COOLING SOURCE AND FOR FRESH WATER.

THIS PROJECT WAS FINANCED BY FUNDS OF THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE OF THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE, MEASURED AND DRAWN 1959 UNDER THE DIRECTION OF CHARLES E. HETTELSON, SUPERVISING ARCHITECT HISTORIC STRUCTURES, PROFESSOR H. BRUCE GIBBS, UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, AND STUDENT ASSISTANT ARCHITECTS CHARLES C. HODGINS, UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME, EDWARD J. WARDEN, UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, HENRY T. STANLEY, UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA.
