

Independence National Historical Park

I was willing to dare even death itself...

12.6

Checklist and Instruction Card

Henry "Box" Brown devised a brilliant plan to escape slavery in Virginia. He was enclosed in a 3 foot long, 2 foot wide, and 2 and 1/2 foot high box and was mailed (for 27 hours) to Philadelphia and freedom.

To learn more stories like this, collect cards of "Heroes of the Underground Railroad". Your quest is to travel through Independence National Historical Park and talk to rangers. Answering questions from rangers earns cards. If you choose to collect all the cards in the set, you can use the letters in the stars to unscramble a word describing the Underground Railroad. Collect any or all of the seven cards below at the places listed. Have fun!

Locations to Earn Cards

STOP 1: Independence Visitor Center- Harriet Tubman

STOP 2: Liberty Bell Center- Hercules' Kitchen and Lucretia Mott

STOP 3: Old City Hall- Mother Bethel Church

STOP 4: West Wing of Ind. Hall- Frederick Douglass and William Still

STOP 5: Congress Hall- Emancipation Proclamation

For More Information and Fun: www.nps.gov/inde