Harriet Tubman

b. Maryland, 3/1822; d. Auburn, NY, 3/18/1913.

E

Harriet Tubman escaped from slavery to Philadelphia, travelling the Underground Railroad in 1849. She immediately returned to rescue family members. Tubman continued to make trips to free others. She was a tireless worker against slavery, and for women's rights. She was referred to as "Moses" for her efforts to free her people from bondage. During the Civil War, she served as a nurse and even went on missions as a spy for the United States.
