Welcome to the George Rogers Clark National Historical Park Junior Ranger Program

Here's how you can earn your Junior Ranger Badge:

You must watch the movie in the Visitor Center, visit the Memorial, explore the park grounds, and answer the following questions.

Look at the manikin exhibit in the Visitor Center.

How funny-looking do you think they are dressed? Check any two.

Very Funny _____ Slightly humorous _____ Lame _____
Deadly Serious _____ About right for 1779 _____

For what reasons do you think they chose those clothes and equipment? Check any two.

To stay warm _____ To impress people _____ To scare people _____
They stole them _____ It was all they could afford _____
It was given to them _____ To stay dry _____

What do you think they would say about your clothes? Check any two.

You would not survive in the woods for long _____ That is funny _____
What, no wool? _____ You will get wet when it rains _____
Really scary...not _____ Who did you steal those from? _____

In the space below, please draw a picture of Fort Sackville

What does the Wabash River look like today?

How does it compare to when Clark and his troops crossed?

Did you know that George Rogers Clark's baby brother, William, was the Clark of Lewis and Clark?

There are several quotes in the Memorial taken from George Rogers Clark's writings. Copy one of those quotes here.

The Memorial was closed for 14 months in 2008 & 2009 for major repairs. Why is it important to preserve the Memorial?

Why do you think there are a National Park and such a large Memorial here to remember George Rogers Clark? Why was he so important?

When you are finished with the questions, return to the visitor center to have a Ranger look over your work. You will then read the Junior Ranger pledge with a Ranger and be presented with your Junior Ranger badge.

As a Junior Ranger, I promise to teach others about what I learned today, explore other parks and historic sites, and help preserve and protect these places so future generations can enjoy them.
