

Jimmy Carter National Historic Site

Driving Tour

Contact Jimmy Carter National Historic Site at:
U.S. National Park Service
300 North Bond Street
Plains, Georgia 31780
229-824-4104
www.nps.gov/jica

Plains Historic Preservation District

Walking Tour

POINTS OF INTEREST

Jimmy Carter National Historic Site

Plains High School (1921) - Visitor Center - School where Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter attended. Designated the State School of Georgia in 1979.

Plains Depot (1888) - Site of Jimmy Carter's 1976 presidential campaign headquarters.

Jimmy Carter Boyhood Farm (1924) - Exhibit farm depicting life as it was when Jimmy Carter lived here.

Carter Compound (1961) - The Carters have resided here since leaving the White House (closed to the public).

Plains

Lebanon Cemetery (1848) - Remains of the settlement of Lebanon, that eventually consolidated into Plains.

Rylander House (built circa 1850) - Known locally as the Haunted House, Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter lived here from 1955 to 1961.

Lebanon Baptist Church (1871) - Moved to this site from Lebanon Cemetery, also the site of the Plains Institutional School.

Plains Downtown (1896) - Centerpoint of the Jimmy Carter Preservation District, includes downtown businesses.

Williams Peanut Warehouse (1896) - An agricultural supply warehouse operating since 1896.

Plains Baptist Church (1906) - Earl and Lillian Carter worshiped here with their children: Jimmy, Ruth, Gloria and Billy.

St. Andrews Evangelical Lutheran Church (1907) - Rosalynn Carter attended as a child with her grandmother, Rosa Wise.

Plains United Methodist Church (1910) - Rosalynn Smith attended as a child and married Jimmy Carter here in 1946.

Rosalynn Smith Carter Childhood Home (1920) - Home where Rosalynn Smith lived until her marriage to Jimmy Carter.

Lillian G. Carter Health & Rehabilitation (1921) - Originally the Wise Sanitarium, this building is where Jimmy Carter was born on October 1, 1924.

Billy Carter Service Station (1952) - Billy Carter's business from 1972-1984; press gathered here during the campaign.

Public Housing Unit 9a (1953) - The Carters lived here from 1953-1955 after Jimmy left the U.S. Navy to take over the family peanut business.

Golden Peanut Company (1961) - Location of the Carter Peanut Warehouse business from 1934-1980s.

Smiling Peanut (1976) - From a Carter rally in Indiana, a reminder of the peanut imagery of the campaign.

Maranatha Baptist Church (built 1978) - The Carters joined in 1981. President Carter teaches Sunday school here.

Plains Solar Collectors (2017) - Installed on Carter land, the collectors generate ~60% of Plains' energy demand.