Doing Research at the Lake Superior Collection Management Center

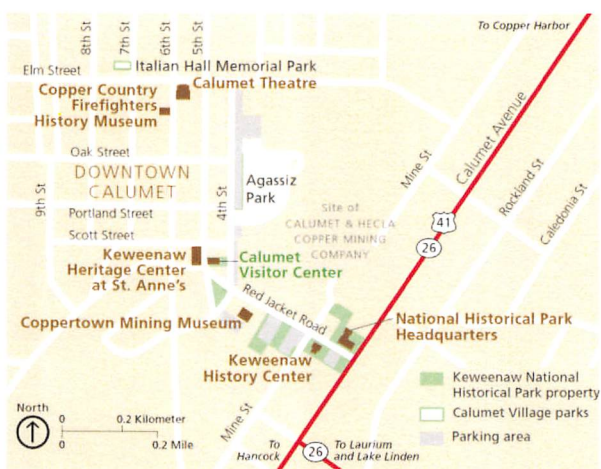

NPS, Keweenaw NHP, C&H Public Library, 1909. Wm. J. Foster Collection, Library Card Photo #278

The Lake Superior Collection Management Center cares for official records from Isle Royale National Park, Keweenaw National Historical Park, and Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore, as well as acquired historic business records, organizational records, personal and family papers, and photographs. For LSCMC researcher forms, a guide to collections at Keweenaw NHP, and additional information, please visit the Keweenaw website at www.nps.gov/kewe. Click on History and Culture, and then on Collections.

The Lake Superior Collection Management Center Archives are located in the Keweenaw History Center, in the historic C&H Public Library building at the southeast corner of Red Jacket Road and Mine Street in Calumet. Plans for the rehabilitation of the building include changes to allow for universal accessibility. In the meantime, please notify LSCMC staff if you are not able to navigate stairs, and they will arrange accommodations for you in another building.

If you are interested in researching family history in the Keweenaw, the Michigan Technological University Archives and Copper Country Historical Collections is the best place to start. It has comprehensive collections of local mining company records and Houghton County directories, along with many other collections. The archives, located at the J. R. Van Pelt and Opie Library on the Michigan Tech campus in Houghton, is open Monday through Friday from 10AM to 5PM. Walk-ins are welcome. Please visit the Michigan Tech Archives website at <http://www.mtu.edu/library/archives/> for more information.

If you are interested in doing research at the Lake Superior Collection Management Center, please contact the LSCMC archivist to make an appointment. Appointments are usually available at 9:30AM or 1:30PM on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, but appointments may be scheduled for other times if needed.
