

EXPERIENCE HISTORY

SALT WORKS

Lewis and Clark Bicentennial
Living History Programs
2005-2006

visit www.LewisandClarkNationalPark.com

Don't just read about history... Experience it!

Meet, trade, and talk with members of the Corps of Discovery as part of our Bicentennial Commemoration. Get up close and personal with members of the Corps as they go about their tasks at Fort Clatsop and making salt on the beach.

LIVING HISTORY SCHEDULE FOR 2005-2006

The Saltmakers Return

48 hours on the beach (end of Avenue U in Seaside, Oregon)

Friday 5 pm – Sunday 5 pm

July 15 – 17, 2005

August 19 – 21, 2005

Destination: The Pacific

Lewis & Clark Bicentennial Signature Event

The Corps Live at Fort Clatsop

November 11 – 15, 2005

“snuggly fixed in their huts”

A Bicentennial Christmas at Fort Clatsop

Help the Corps celebrate Christmas as part of our special bicentennial activities.

This is the only time Fort Clatsop is open Christmas day!

Sunday, December 25, 2005

10 am - 5 pm

Free admission to Fort Clatsop Christmas Day!

Monday - Tuesday, December 26 & 27, 2005

9 am - 5 pm

Regular admission fees apply ($3 per person)

The Saltmakers Return

48 hours on the beach (end of Avenue U in Seaside, Oregon)

Friday 5 pm – Sunday 5 pm

February 17 – 19, 2006

Visit www.lewisandclarknationalpark.com for details.

The Living History Program is made possible by grants from:

Kinsman Foundation

Autzen Foundation

National Park Service Challenge Cost Share Grant

City of Seaside Promotions Committee

Lewis and Clark Bicentennial in Oregon

Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Association for Clatsop County

Fort Clatsop Historical Association

Oregon Historic Trails Fund of the Oregon Community Foundation

www.destinationthepacific.com

The Saltmakers Return is sponsored by Seaside Museum & Historical Society, the Lewis and Clark National Historical Park, and Destination: The Pacific

Special thanks to Oregon Public Broadcasting