

"Come Let Us Reason Together"

Working Together for Civil Rights

President Lyndon B. Johnson and African American leaders such as Martin Luther King, Jr. worked together to bring change. The goal was full citizenship in American society. Their pursuits included the right to use public facilities, the ability to vote without restriction, and equal rights in housing.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/lyjo

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE