

Lyndon B. Johnson National Historical Park

“Give us your tired,
your poor...”

Immigration Reform Act of 1965

President Lyndon B. Johnson understood that we are a nation of immigrants whose contributions have shaped the United States. He signed into law the Immigration Reform Act on October 3, 1965 at the Statue of Liberty. The law removed barriers to prevent lawful immigration from any part of the world, no matter the nation.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/lyjo

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE