Spruce Tree House

Welcome

Winter is a special time to visit Mesa Verde National Park and there are many activities available to help you experience this magical place. Step back in time by visiting the Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum to see an Ancestral Puebloan turkey-feather winter boot; join a free ranger-guided tour of Spruce Tree House and experience the warmth of a kiva; drive the Mesa Top Loop Road and watch for deer making their way through the snow; or enjoy a variety of cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, and hiking opportunities in the quiet winter environment.

Winter Logistics

All activities depend on road and weather conditions. Please check with a ranger before beginning any of the listed activities. We recommend good hiking boots or snow boots, warm layered clothing, a hat, gloves, snacks, and water.

Guide booklets are available at the Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum and at sites along the Mesa Top Loop Road. Limited food service is available at the Spruce Tree Terrace, near the museum, from 11:00 am to 3:30 pm. There is no overnight lodging in the park, but accommodations are available in nearby communities. For additional park information, tune your radio to AM 1610.

Visit Spruce Tree House

Spruce Tree House is Mesa Verde's best-preserved cliff dwelling and the only cliff dwelling open during the winter. Free, ranger-guided tours are offered daily:

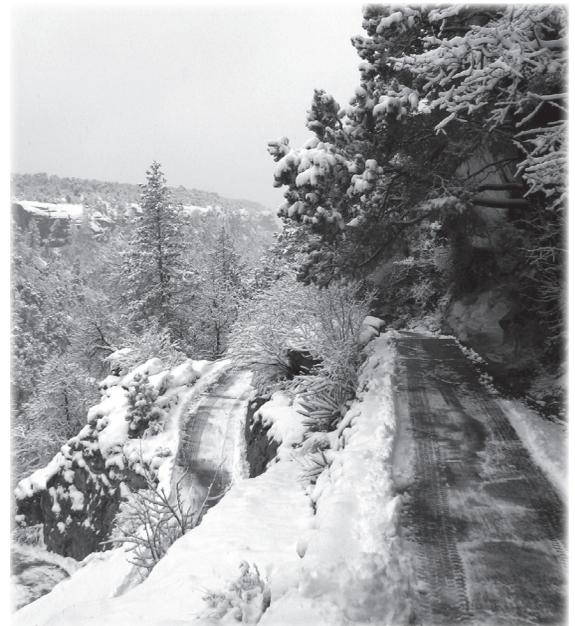

November 2, 2014 to February 20, 2015*
10:30 am, 1:00 pm, and 3:00 pm

February 21, 2015 to March 6, 2015
10:00 am, 1:00 pm, and 3:30 pm

Dress warmly and meet the ranger at the Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum five minutes before the tour. The trail to Spruce Tree House is a 1/2-mile (1 km) winding, paved trail that includes a steep 100-foot (30 m) descent and ascent. The trail is moderately strenuous and may be icy.

Spruce Tree House and the museum are a 45 to 60 minute drive from the park entrance.

*Spruce Tree House is open daily (weather permitting) except Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day.

Visitor and Research Center

Mesa Verde National Park Visitor and Research Center is located at the park entrance and serves as the park's primary facility for orienting visitors to opportunities within the park and surrounding area. This LEED® (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) facility also houses a state-of-the-art research and storage facility for the park's archives and museum collection of over three million objects.

*The Mesa Verde Visitor Center is open daily except Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day.

*Entrance fees will be collected here from January 11 through March 6, 2015

Explore On Your Own

Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum and Store

will help you gain insights into the lives of the Ancestral Pueblo people. The museum is located 20 miles (33 km) south of the park entrance. A 25-minute park video is shown every half hour. The museum and store are open daily except Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day.

Mesa Top Loop Road is a six-mile (10 km) drive with short paved trails to view 12 easily-accessible archeological sites, including surface sites and cliff dwelling overlooks. Highlights include views of Square Tower House and Cliff Palace. Open daily 8:00 am to sunset.

Petroglyph Point Trail is located near the Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum. The 2.4-mile (3.9 km) trail leads to a panel of petroglyphs. In clear weather, the trail can be hiked as a loop. However, due to ice and snow, you may be directed to hike via the mesa top section of the trail, or the entire trail may be closed. Ask a ranger at the museum for trail conditions and to register for the hike.

Cliff Palace Loop Road is open to cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, or hiking. No vehicles are permitted after December 1.

Far View Sites Complex includes Far View House plus four other villages and a dry reservoir. Four miles (6.4 km) north of the museum, this 3/4-mile (1.2 km) trail is not plowed. Park just outside the gate, but do not block the gate. Open 8:00 am to sunset.

Winter Recreational Opportunities are available for Nordic skiing and snowshoeing once there is an appreciable amount of snow and the park has begun to groom trails. To find out what winter trails are open, call 970-529-4622 or 970-529-4631.

Snowshoes are available for loan at the Visitor Center and Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum.

Ask for maps, descriptions, and trail conditions at the Visitor Center or Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum. This information is also available on the park website at www.nps.gov/meve.
