

Missouri National Recreation River

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Across the wide
MISSOURI
River

A large, high-angle photograph of a yellow kayak on a wide, calm river. The kayak's bow is in the foreground, pointing towards the center of the frame. A black hatch cover is visible on the deck. The water is a deep blue, reflecting the sky. The far bank is lined with green trees and grass. The sky is a clear, pale blue.

nps.gov/mnrr

A white-bordered, tilted photograph showing a group of people, including children and an adult wearing a hat, gathered around a table outdoors. They appear to be engaged in an activity, possibly a meal or a craft project.A white-bordered, tilted photograph showing a wide river flowing through a landscape with yellow wildflowers in the foreground and a blue sky above.

Hike and explore the sights and sounds along the "Big Muddy."

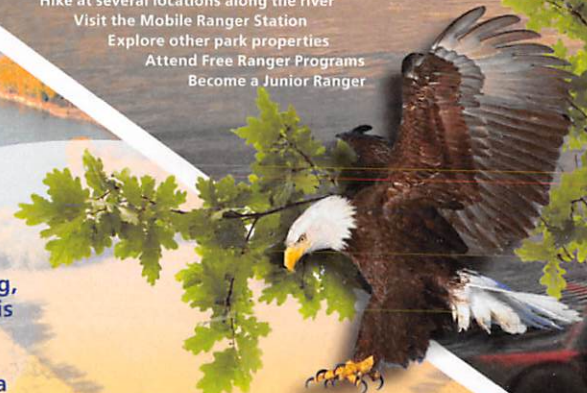

The River is Calling...

- Birdwatch one of America's premier flyways
- Fish for catfish, walleye, sauger, & paddlefish
- Float the Missouri by boat/canoe/kayak
- Enjoy night skies and gaze at the stars
- Hike at several locations along the river
- Visit the Mobile Ranger Station
- Explore other park properties
- Attend Free Ranger Programs
- Become a Junior Ranger

FIND YOUR PARK

Discover the wild, winding, mighty Missouri River. This 100-mile stretch, along the Nebraska and South Dakota borders, remains a remnant of the untamed American landscape.

Park Headquarters
508 E Second St.
Yankton, SD 57078
8:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. M-F
605-665-0209
nps.gov/mnrr

