

Monocacy National Battlefield

Jubal Early

Major General Jubal A. Early

Born: November 3, 1816 in Franklin County, Virginia

Died: March 2, 1894 in Lynchburg, Virginia

General Jubal Early led the Confederates to success at the battle of Monocacy, but victory was short lived. The day spent in battle cost them precious time in threatening the United States capital, and the opportunity to negatively influence the re-election of President Abraham Lincoln was lost.