PARADISE INN

"WHERE FLOWERS AND GLACIERS MEET" is an appropriate title for this Mountain Glacier Wonderland unsurpassed for natural scenic splendors throughout its 377.78 square miles of primeval charm. This great Mountain which towers 14,408 feet above sea level, is the largest accessible single peak glacial system in the United States with 28 different huge bodies of ice flowing down its steep slopes. In glowing contrast to this marvelous spectacle of ice are the wild flower fields of vividly colored blossoms that bloom to the very edge of the glaciers.

PARADISE

PARADISE VALLEY, but 76 miles from Tacoma and 108 miles from Seattle, is world renowned as an alpine playground where a wide variety of accommodations offer you every comfort and convenience at the lowest possible cost, and activities for the enjoyment of all.

SUNRISE

SUNRISE, the newest recreational center in the Park, is reached over excellent highways just 89 miles from Tacoma, 96 miles from Seattle and 91 miles from Yakima. Not only is Sunrise noted for outstanding saddle horse trails but the Emmons Glacier, largest in Continental United States, may be seen here.

SUNRISE LODGE AND CABINS

NATURE COASTING

ENJOY your National Park and participate in the many pleasures that await your visit at both Paradise Valley and Sunrise. The Paradise Guide Department is equipped to furnish all clothing and equipment necessary to join the foot guide trips to the Paradise and Nisqually Glaciers, tin pants sliding on summer snows, and Pinnacle Peak and the saddle horse trips over the famed Skyline, Lakes, and Tatoosh Trails. At Sunrise, saddle horse trips proving most popular are over the Sunrise Rim, Sourdough, and Glacier Basin Trails. Foot trips $2.00, saddle horse trips $3.50; these prices include all necessary clothing and equipment.

The Ranger Naturalists of the National Park Service escort free hiking trips through the flower fields and to the edge of the glaciers.

Enjoy your National Park and experience the thrills of exploring nature's outstanding accomplishments.
