

NAVAJO NATIONAL MONUMENT CELEBRATES 100 YEARS

On March 20, 1909 President William Taft signed a proclamation to designate Navajo National Monument administered by the National Park Service. The monument includes Betatakin, Keet Seel, and Inscription House cliff dwellings. Since then, we have had over one million visitors see the magnificent dwellings of the Ancestral Puebloan people. Come and celebrate this joyous occasion.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

PLACE: VISITOR CENTER

DATE: JUNE 20, 2009

9:00 A.M. Posting of colors: Shonto Veterans, Invocation

9:15 A.M. Speeches by Superintendents, Council Delegates, and Chapter Officials

10:30 A.M. Intermission

11:00 A.M. Entertainment: performers, royalties, art demonstration, Ranger guided tours, and JR Ranger Activities

2:00 P.M. Grand Finale Betatakin Trail Rider's Parade

For more information: (928) 672-2700. Food Concessions on site or bring a picnic lunch.