National Park Service Primitive Campgrounds

Campsites are available at the areas listed below on a first come basis. The number of sites at each area is limited. Each area has vault toilets, picnic tables, fire rings and/or fixed outdoor grills, but no potable water. A ranger will visit sites daily to register campers; stay limit 1 to 14 days.

Army Camp

Location: turn on one lane road immediately north of the bridge crossing New River on WV 41 near Prince

Brooklyn

Location: travel 4.6 miles on Gatewood Road from Fayetteville to Cunard turn-off, go 1.8 miles and follow signs to Cunard River Access, at river level turn right and follow dirt road approx. 1 mile

Glade Creek

Location: turn on Glade Creek Access road off WV 41 near Prince, 6 miles

Grandview Sandbar

Location: turn on Glade Creek Access road off WV 41 near Prince, 1 miles

Stone Cliff – ALCOHOL PROHIBITED

Summersville Dam Tailwaters/Gauley River National Recreation Area

Location: take WV 129 west at Mt. Nebo, turn left onto second road after dam leading to tailwaters, right at parking area.

Backcountry Camping

Areas suitable for camping can be found adjacent to trails such as Glade Creek, Brooklyn-Southside Junction and Stone Cliff trails. Other sites are along the river, accessible by boat.

- ◆ Camping is prohibited at Grandview, Brooklyn Island, day-use areas, and within Bluestone National Scenic River.
- ◆ Camping is prohibited within 100 feet of state roads, parking lots, trailheads, boat launch areas, visitor centers, park structures, top or bottom of cliffs, and historic areas.
- ◆ One third of the land within the park is private property. Respect the rights of landowners.

Discuss your plans, and register with a ranger before setting out. This is a good opportunity to obtain last minute trail information and let the ranger know where you plan to leave your vehicle and how long you expect to be backpacking.

Help care for your park by practicing Leave No Trace minimum impact techniques. For more information: www.LNT.org
