

AREA ATTRACTIONS

New River Gorge Bridge - This well-known attraction is the second highest bridge in the country, and the longest single arch steel span in the world. The bridge and overlook are located on U.S. Route 19, just north of Fayetteville at the site of Canyon Rim Visitor Center.

Sandstone Falls - Just 15 minutes from the Hinton Visitor Center on River Road, this area features a trail and boardwalk that offer superb views of this scenic falls which stretches across the New River.

State Parks - Babcock, Bluestone, Carnifex Ferry, Hawks Nest and Pipestem are some of West Virginia's finest parks in the vicinity.

Exhibition Coal Mine - This unique attraction takes you underground for an inside look at coal mining. Located in the city of Beckley.

Theatre West Virginia - Located at Grandview Park, outdoor dramas are presented through the summer season.

RECREATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

BOATING - The New River offers a variety of boating experiences. It contains relatively mild pools, sections of intermediate rapids and shoals, and a stretch of crashing whitewater. Many visitors prefer to use one of the commercial outfitters who run trips on the river. A list of licensed outfitters is available on request.

PRIMITIVE CAMPING - Primitive and backcountry camping are available at various locations inside the park boundaries. Most camp sites and locations are best reached by boat, though some may also be reached by road or trail. Contact a park ranger for more information on areas open to camping.

FISHING - The New River is considered one of the finest warm water fisheries in the region. It provides excellent smallmouth bass, catfish, and walleye fishing. Trout are found in the cooler tributary streams. A West Virginia fishing license is required. Contact a park ranger for more information.

HIKING TRAILS - Many miles of hiking trails are found throughout the New River Gorge. The most developed trail systems are found at Grandview and at Babcock, Bluestone, and Pipestem State Parks. Canyon Rim and Sandstone Falls offer short trails that lead to scenic overlooks. Ranger guided hikes are offered on a regular basis.
