

Be Sure To Visit Our Oceanside Lodge.

Perched on a bluff, overlooking the Pacific Ocean, sits one of the most memorable resorts in the Olympic National Park. It's Kalaloch Lodge, and it has the charming characteristics of an oceanside fishing village.

At Kalaloch Lodge, you'll discover cozy ocean front log cabins with Franklin fireplaces, and charming guest rooms that suit any vacationer's lifestyle. And, of course, there are plenty of activities for you and your family - hiking, beachcombing, fabulous dining and guided tours. There's something for everyone.

So escape to an oceanside getaway - to the beauty of the Olympic National Park and Kalaloch Lodge.

Watch Mother Nature in all her glory - from breathtaking sunsets to dazzling winter storms.

When You're Getting Away To The Coast,

Getting Here Is Easy. Leaving Is Hard.

From I-5 North or South, take exit 104 at Olympia (Aberdeen-Ocean Beaches) and go straight west to Aberdeen-Hoquiam. From Hoquiam, go north on U.S. 101. We're located 70 miles north of Hoquiam. If traveling south, we're 35 miles south of Forks or 95 miles southwest of Port Angeles.
