DIRECTIONS

Petrified Forest can be reached from either U.S. 180 or I-40. Eastbound Visitors should enter the park at the south entrance via US 180 from Holbrook, then travel north through the park, exiting eastbound on I-40. Westbound Visitors should use the north entrance off I-40, proceed south through the park to US 180 to Holbrook and I-40.

The two lane park road is 28 miles long. It winds along the rim of the Painted Desert, passes through archeological areas, and leads to many petrified wood sites. Several hours should be allowed to view the park. Due to narrow roads and periods of heavy traffic, bicycling is not recommended. Park visitor centers are located at both entrances to the park.

The park is only open during daylight hours, call ahead for operation times (520)-524-6228.

WEATHER

The weather in northeast Arizona is variable and difficult to predict. Winter highs are usually in the 40's with lows in the 20's. Periodic winter storms may bring snow and result in park road closures.

Summer highs are typically in the 90's with cool nights around 50. Summer thunder- storms are frequent; they bring approximately 40% of the park's 9 to 11 inches of precipitation.

COLLECTING

Petrified Forest National Park was established to preserve the area for future generations. Therefore, collecting petrified wood, plants, animals, fossils, artifacts or any other object in the park is strictly prohibited.

You may purchase petrified wood from commercial shops located in or near the park. The wood sold in these stores is collected from private land outside the National Park.
