

Old Bullock Meeting House Natl. Monument, Kentucky.

General:

Location: In Monroe County.
Area: 20 acres surrounding the building.
Ownership: Now a State Park.

KENTUCKY.

General Characteristics:

- (a) Scenic:
- (b) Historical: Reported to be the oldest structure in the state, erected in 1798.
- (c) Geological:
- (d) Recreational:
- (e) Biological:

Accessibility:

Interested

Individuals: Mrs. Emma Guy Crosswell, Director of Parks, Frankfort, Ky.

Reports

Reported by Mrs. Emma Guy Crosswell, in a letter of Sept. 1, 1934, to Mr. Herbert Evison, in which she reported it to be the oldest structure in the state, erected in 1798.

and

Mr. Chatelain stated that the site, although interesting, is not of national interest. The request was answered on Sept. 7, 1934, advising that the existing State Park is probably desirable.

Action:

An historical study has been made of the site, and a short report made indicating that it is of state but not national interest. An investigation may be made at a later date. 11-8-34

OLD BULLOCK MEETING HOUSE

NATIONAL MONUMENT.