Fall in the foothills: Watch closely

High in the Sierra, fall prompts life to prepare for a long wait beneath coming snows. By late fall, Pacific storms usually start to swing through the Sierra, bestowing the cold, white mantle that puts so much of life on hold. In the foothills, however, autumn signals an end to waiting.

Life at the lower elevations has waited all summer. Many species lay dormant, waiting for the drought, heat, and resulting food shortages to pass. Some animals slept through the season – the summer version of hibernation.

With fall, however, reanimation begins. Rain plus cooler temperatures inspires activity. Male tarantulas emerge from burrows and rove the landscape looking for mates. Under rocks, torpid California newts begin to stir. As fall passes, these charming orange salamanders walk about looking for water in which to mate and lay eggs.

Dormant buckeye trees appear lifeless, having shed their leaves months ago to limit summer's drain on their water sources. Yet beneath their bare branches, their large brown seeds lie waiting. Once rains begin, a strong root pushes through each hard husk. Buckeyes sprout by the thousands.

As acorns ripen on foothill oaks, some animals begin stashing them. Acorn woodpeckers work ceaselessly to store their namesake nut in oak trees, fence posts, telephone poles, houses -- any wooden surface they can drill to hold acorns. Blue scrub jays store acorns for eating later by pushing them into the ground with their strong beaks. By spring, oak seedlings throughout the foothills will owe their start to forgetful jays.

Fall's acorn crop sustains many foothill species: bears, deer, band-tailed pigeons, and more. Creatures that migrated away when summer started return now. Species diversity at these lower elevations is especially evident in fall. Cedar waxwings, white-crowned sparrows, and other birds return from northern breeding grounds where cold and food shortages now rule. Red-breasted nuthatches and golden-crowned kinglets fly down from conifer forests. Mountain quail walk down the steep slopes; these nine-inch-long birds migrate up to twenty miles on foot.

The exception to all this vitality? Reptiles. While it rarely snows, the foothills do get chilly, which drives snakes and lizards to their burrows.

Autumn also makes the foothills easier for us to enjoy. The midday sun has lost its harsh summer glare. Cool nights are not yet frosty. Open trails, plentiful wildlife, and less-crowded campgrounds beckon.

Fall days may seem quiet, but life is stirring in the foothills. It is done with waiting. Watch closely.

Change: Natural & Unnatural

We often think of parks as outdoor museums. Caretaking a living ecosystem, however, is very different than protecting unchanging objects.

Both natural features and human facilities may be different each time you visit. Both are changing all the time. How we take care of those features and facilities may also affect your visit. You won't notice the ozone monitor that works 24 hours a day, but you will see other activities such as revegetation, road work, painting, or trail maintenance. Some activities may unavoidably affect you, such as smoke from a prescribed fire, campsite closures due to revegetation, or bear management.

The park staff uses such actions as tools to maintain the landscape and protect its inhabitants and visitors. Your visit gives you but a snapshot of this process; Nature decides the timing of many of these actions. They all share one goal: preservation of these parks for us all, now and in the future.

Prescribed fire in a sequoia grove

Fire: A Natural Change

Years ago, we tried to banish fire from the landscape, believing it was destructive. In sequoia groves, that meant putting out lightning-caused fires that naturally start as often as every 5 to 15 years.

As time passed, we saw unanticipated consequences from this practice. Fire suppression blocked important natural processes, which led to big problems:

First, sequoias were not reproducing. We learned that fires create the conditions that sequoias need to regenerate: Fires leave behind a seedbed fertilized with ash and they open the forest canopy, which allows sunlight to reach the seedlings.

Second, the amount of dead wood and dense growth of small white-fir trees increased tremendously. In the past, frequent natural fires burned these away. Now, after fire's long absence, these serve as fuels, feeding bigger, hotter blazes that are more dangerous for people, plants, and wildlife.

For over 40 years at these parks, we have studied fire and its effects on the land. To protect human safety and benefit giant sequoia trees, we now work with fire to restore the benefits it brings.

We still put out fires that threaten life and property but when and where it's appropriate, we ignite prescribed fires or allow lightning fires to spread naturally, reducing fuels and improving resource conditions. Strong evidence shows we are succeeding.

Why is this important? The national parks exist to conserve resources "unimpaired for the enjoyment of future generations." We once thought that aggressive fire suppression met this goal. A more complete understanding of fire tells us that excluding this important natural agent of change only hurts what we are trying to protect.

Note: The effects of the 2015 Rough Fire continue to influence this area. See page 7 for more.

Unnatural Change: Alien Invaders

Plants and animals evolve together in communities over time. Often, they keep each other in check.

When species get brought in from other places, the newcomers may multiply wildly. This is because the competitors, predators, and diseases that keep them in check in their home communities are not here. This imbalance breaks links in the local web of life, badly disrupting native species that depend on each other. Sometimes the non-native aliens completely replace local plants and animals.

Practice alien hygiene! Look for seeds and tiny animals attached to shoes, clothes, waders, equipment, tires, and pet fur. Wash mud from under cars and on tires before coming into the parks.

The natives will thank you!

Imminent Alien Threats!

Star thistle is one of the most damaging non-natives in the state. Dense, thorny growth completely excludes native plants and limits wildlife movements. It is not yet established in these parks, but it is close! If you recognize its yellow flower and thorny spines from your home or travels, make sure not to bring it here. If you see it here, take photos, note the location, and show them to a ranger.

New Zealand mud snails completely take over and change waterways that they invade. Due to their biology, just one snail can start a huge population! These tiny light-brown animals—less than 1/8-inch long—stick to your gear. Check boots, waders, and boats thoroughly for this little invader. Common just east of the parks, they could easily be carried into the High Sierra.

Fire Restrictions, Campfires, & Firewood

- Restrictions in place in park & forest: page 12.
- Gather only dead & down wood; do not cut limbs off trees. Please don't transport firewood. It can carry insects/diseases that threaten living trees. Find/buy wood close to where you will use it. Please burn any wood you brought in.
- Fires must be out cold before you leave.
- On Forest Service (USFS) land: Fire restrictions are in place. Free fire permits are required where fire is permitted. Ask at Hume Lake Office, Kings Canyon Visitor Center (Grant Grove), a USFS ranger, or download at fs.usda.gov/sequoia or www.preventwildfireCA.org.

Roadside/Dispersed Camping?

Not permitted in the park; camp only in designated sites in campgrounds. In National Forest & Monument (USFS): See "Dispersed Camping" at the bottom of the table to the right.

Moro Rock/Crescent Meadow Road

Open. No drinking water is available along this 3-mile dead-end road that begins at Giant Forest Museum. The road closes with snowfall to become a ski and snowshoe trail:

- Moro Rock - A granite dome with a steep 1/4-mile staircase to the top (300-foot elevation gain). Spectacular mountain views, but never climb if it is snowy or icy! Two miles from Generals Highway. Read and follow the lightning warning on page 10.
- Tunnel Log - A fallen sequoia that was tunneled through, and the only "tree you can drive through" in these parks. Bypass for larger vehicles. 2.7 miles from the Museum.
- Crescent Meadow - Sequoias surround this fragile wetland. Stay on designated trails; use fallen logs to walk into meadows. Several trails start here, such as the 1-mile (1.6 km) route to Tharp's Log, an historic cabin in a fallen sequoia; and the High Sierra Trail (60 miles/97 km) to Mt. Whitney (14,500'/4419 m), highest in the lower 48 states.

Big Trees Trail

A level, 2/3-mile (1km) paved loop with trailside exhibits about sequoias. Start at Giant Forest Museum (parking at the trail is only for cars with disability placards until significant snow accumulates). 1 hour round trip.

General Sherman Tree

Two trails lead to the world's largest tree:

- Main Trail - This 1/2-mile trail down to the tree has some stairs. The walk back is uphill; be sure to take your time at this elevation. When the holiday shuttles are operating (see below), you can park here, walk down, then take a shuttle back to your car. Drive 2 miles north of Giant Forest Museum (past the small Sherman Tree parking lot on the Generals Hwy, which is only for those with disability placards). Turn right on Wolverton Road then follow signs.

• Wheelchair-accessible trail from the Generals Hwy to the Sherman Tree - Until parking at the Main Trail closes for winter (see above), parking here is only for those with disability placards. You can stop here to drop off people who prefer this accessible trail.

Congress Trail

A fairly level 2-mile loop (3.2 km) through the heart of this spectacular sequoia grove, it begins at the General Sherman Tree and winds past meadows and gigantic trees. Enjoy a fall hike!

Free Holiday Shuttles in Sequoia National Park

Only during November 23 - 26
& December 23 - January 1

Shuttles run 10am-4:30pm.

Weather permitting, shuttles travel from Giant Forest Museum to the Sherman Tree (both the accessible trail by the Generals Highway and the main trailhead/parking area off the Wolverton Road), Wolverton picnic/snowplay area, Lodgepole Market, Wuksachi Lodge, then back.

While shuttles are running, Sherman Tree parking on the Generals Highway is only for cars with disability placards, so you can park at a different shuttle stop and ride back to the biggest of all trees!

Check for updated details on bulletin boards and at visitor centers.

In 2015, the large Rough Fire burned in this area. Stay on trails. Look and listen for danger: The purplish poodle-dog flowers growing in burned areas contain toxins; do not touch! Burned stumps and ground can be unstable; dead trees can fall any time. Obey closed-area signs.

Review safety advice (page 10), and basic park rules (page 9). Be careful near rivers and with fire. Always store food properly before leaving your car or campsite. Carry a map and water.

Grant Grove

Grant Tree Trail

General Grant, the world's second largest tree and a national shrine, grows along this 1/3-mile (.5 km) paved trail. Trail guides are sold at visitor centers & the trailhead. One mile/1.6km from the visitor center; go north on Hwy 180 then follow signs left.

North Grove Loop

This 1½-mile (2.4 km) trail offers a close look at Big Trees and a quiet forest walk. A great place to see effects from the Rough Fire. Start at Grant Tree overflow-parking.

Panoramic Point Road

A narrow road to a trail to a beautiful Sierran vista. Trailers & RVs prohibited. Go east through the visitor-center parking lot & follow signs. The paved, accessible trail climbs gently to an overlook. Park Ridge Trail (4 miles/6.4 km round-trip) begins here.

Redwood Mountain Sequoia Grove

Not plowed. Rutted dirt road to one of the world's largest Big Tree groves. Research here revealed the positive link between sequoias and fire. Across Generals Hwy from Quail Flat/Hume Lake junction; 7 miles south of Grant Grove. Turn right (west) at Redwood Saddle; 2 miles to parking lot. Loop trails up to 10 miles long.

Cedar Grove - closes 11/13

The road into this area in the Kings Canyon closes at noon, 11/13. Many drought-weakened trees here succumbed to insects; be very aware of the potential for falling trees and branches. See page 12 for fire restrictions.

Canyon View

The "U" shape of this canyon, apparent from this viewpoint, reveals its glacial history. One mile (1.6 km) east of Cedar Grove Village on Hwy 180.

Knapp's Cabin

During the Roaring '20s, a California businessman stored gear for lavish fishing trips in this small cabin. East of the village 2 miles on Hwy 180.

Roaring River Falls

A short, shady walk to a powerful waterfall rushing through a granite chute. This paved trail has been made more accessible. East of the Village 3 miles.

Zumwalt Meadow

This 1.5-mile (2.4 km) loop passes high granite walls, lush meadows, and the Kings River. Parking is 4½ miles east of Cedar Grove Village. Buy a trail guide at the visitor center. The start of the trail is accessible, but work to repair flood damage, starting in October, will limit accessibility until next summer.

Mist Falls

One of the park's largest waterfalls. Don't get close to the edge! Allow 4-5 hours; 9 miles (14.4 km) round trip from Road's End. Moderately strenuous; 800' elevation gain (mostly in the last 2 miles).

Hotel Creek Trail to Cedar Grove Overlook

Starts 0.2 mile north of the market at North Side Drive & Cedar Lane. 5 miles (8 km) round trip; 1200ft (365 m) elevation gain. Strenuous; allow 3-4 hours. Return via Lewis Creek Trail for an 8-mile (12.9km) loop.

National Forest / Monument

Giant Sequoia National Monument is part of the Sequoia National Forest next to these parks. Page 9 has details on how national parks and forests differ.

Converse Basin

North of Grant Grove 2 miles. Virtually every mature sequoia in this huge grove was felled early in the 1900s. Ask at the visitor center about trails.

Indian Basin

A one-mile accessible trail & one-mile unpaved trail. On Highway 180, go 7 miles north of Grant Grove; turn into Princess Campground. Drive past the dump station to the trailhead parking area.

Hume Lake

Formed by a historic dam, this lake supplied water to a flume that floated lumber 67 miles (108km) to Sanger! An easy 2½-mile (4 km) trail circles it. Page 9 lists facilities. Eight miles north of Grant Grove on Highway 180; 3 miles south on Hume Lake Road.

Buck Rock Lookout

A 1916 tower, still used for spotting fires, offers 360° views. Approximately 6 miles (9.6 km) off Big Meadows Road 14S11, then take Forest Road 13So4.

The Kings Canyon

The Generals Highway

Driving this 80-year-old roadway is part of the park experience. It carries you up almost a mile in elevation and connects the General Sherman Tree to the General Grant Tree -- hence its name.

An intense effort to upgrade the highway is underway. For decades, a skin of pavement barely improved the original wagon road. Today's work is building a route that can handle large numbers of modern vehicles without losing the joys of a mountain road. See page 12 for details on traffic delays.

Wayside exhibits at overlooks along this historic road offer insight into the landscape:

Kings Canyon Overlook

View the High Sierra wilderness from this overlook about 6 miles (9.5km) south of Grant Grove.

McGee Vista

Not on the Generals Hwy, but close to it, on 180 north of Grant Grove Village 3 miles. Sunset views.

Redwood Mountain Overlook

Six miles (9.6 km) south of Grant Grove on the southwest side of the Generals Highway. Views of one of the world's largest sequoia groves.

Eleven Range Overlook

South of the Giant Forest, this turnout offers views to the west over the foothills and the distant valley.

You are Responsible for Your Safety

Natural areas present hazards. Hot and cold temperatures, slippery or uneven ground, wild animals, and changing weather all pose dangers. Rocks roll, trees topple, and limbs drop without warning. People create other hazards via campfires, traffic, and poor decisions. GPS directions may mislead you here.

Water is the main cause of death here. Many drowning victims just walking or climbing near rivers unexpectedly fell in.

The National Park Service works to reduce risks, but your safety is in your own hands. Keep alert. Read warnings and ask a ranger for advice.

DROWNING

The #1 cause of death in national parks! Be careful around water; falling in is as dangerous as swimming. Once in a river, getting out can be nearly impossible: Rocks are smooth and slippery; swift, cold water rapidly saps your strength. Currents are always stronger than they appear, even during low water. Ask at visitor centers about river conditions.

PLAGUE, HANTAVIRUS & WEST NILE

Do not feed or touch ANY wild animals. Avoid areas of rodent activity, as fleas on rodents can carry plague and deer mice feces can carry hantavirus. West Nile virus is passed by bites from infected mosquitos. Human illness is not common, but take steps to avoid mosquito bites.

TICKS are common in foothill and Kings Canyon grasses; check yourself for these little animals after a walk. Their bite is painless, but some carry Lyme disease. Remove them carefully with tweezers and seek a doctor's advice.

GIARDIA

This protozoan in lakes and streams causes intestinal upset. Iodine and other chemicals may not be as reliable as heat in killing bacteria and Giardia, but can be effective if used properly. Boil drinking water from waterways for at least 3 minutes.

POISONOUS PLANTS

Poison oak is a common shrub growing up to 5000 feet elevation. Shiny green leaves in groups of three in spring, red leaves and whitish berries in late summer and fall; bare in winter. If you touch any part of it, wash skin and clothes right away. Don't touch the poodle-dog bush (Turricula), the plant with light-purple flowers growing in burned areas along Hwy 180 to Cedar Grove. Its tiny sticky hairs cause blisters and pain.

HYPOTHERMIA

This life-threatening condition can occur year-round. Stay dry; snack often. If others don't react to the need for warmer clothes or are stumbling, forgetful, or extremely tired and drowsy, get warm sugary drinks into them immediately. Get them into dry clothes, sleeping bags, and shelter. Keep an eye on children who are wet or cold.

RATTLESNAKES

Found in much of these parks; especially common in the foothills, in the Kings Canyon, and near water. It has a triangular head, unlike the harmless gopher snake. Watch where you put your hands and feet! Do not harass or kill snakes; this is when most bites occur. Bites are rarely lethal, but tissue damage can be severe. If bitten, avoid panic and call 911.

LIGHTNING

See dark clouds or lightning? Hear thunder? Get inside a large building or a vehicle (not convertible), if possible. Do not stand under trees or in shallow caves. Avoid projecting above your surroundings, such as standing on a ridge, on Moro Rock, or in open meadows. Stay away from open water, wire fences, and metal railings, which can carry lightning from a distance.

CARBON MONOXIDE

This odorless, colorless gas can be fatal. Never burn charcoal in closed spaces such as a tent or RV.

OZONE POLLUTION

See air-quality forecasts in visitor centers. Most ozone rises into the Sierra Nevada on warm winds. Levels of this colorless gas are highest from May to October, peaking in late afternoon. The peaks sometimes reach "unhealthy" state/federal standards, and can affect respiratory systems. Ozone forms from gases in car and factory exhaust.

GPS & WEAK CELL SIGNALS

Cell phones rarely work here, and GPS may misdirect you. Don't rely on them. Note location of pay telephones (pages 8 & 9), and use maps.

MOUNTAIN LIONS

Cougars roam throughout these parks, but you are unlikely to see one. Attacks are rare, but be aware. Watch children closely; never let them run ahead. Cautiously move away if you find a partially buried animal carcass. If you see a cougar, don't act like prey:

- Don't run; that may trigger pursuit. Pick up children.
- Try to appear as large as possible. Don't crouch or hide.
- Hold your ground or back away slowly while facing the cougar.
- If the cougar acts aggressively, wave your hands, shout, and throw stones or sticks at it.
- If attacked, fight back! Report any sightings.

DRINKING WATER

We test the 13 park water systems to ensure that they meet federal and state standards. Annual Consumer Confidence Reports are available.

ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

Keep parks safe, natural, and free from illegal activities, including marijuana growing and fireworks! Report suspicious activities: 1-888-NPS-CRIME.

KEEP ANIMALS SAFE

Wildlife, ticks, and overheating in vehicles can harm pets. Keep wildlife safe from pets, too.

TREE HAZARDS

Branches and trees may fall, whether or not they are dead, even when there is no wind. Keep eyes and ears open. Run if you hear cracks or snapping from roots, trunks, or branches (sometimes there is no sound). Don't linger under dead, cracked, broken, or hanging branches. Avoid spending any time under trees that are rotten at the base or have cracked bark that is peeling off the trunk.

Explore Safely

- Avoid going alone, and tell someone your plans and return time.
- Take a map, water, flashlight, and layers of clothes.
- Watch and listen for potential hazards above, around, and on the ground.

Bear Habitat: Proper food storage is the law!

Bears can grab unattended food or easily break into cars that have food in them. They become bold and sometimes aggressive in attempts to get more. Too often these bears must be killed.

This is why you may be fined if you do not store food properly. Follow the rules below to reduce (but not eliminate) the risk of a bear break-in.

Drivers

Never leave any food or scented item in cars where food-storage boxes are provided.

Picnickers

Never move away from coolers and tables when food is out. Stay within arm's length of food.

Lodge Guests

Remove food from your vehicles.

Campers

Store food day and night in the metal boxes provided (avoid bringing coolers that won't fit; most boxes are 47" long x 33" deep x 28" high. Store ALL food, coolers, related items, and anything with an odor (even non-food) — including unopened cans and bottles. Latch the box completely. Food not stored properly will be impounded. Where boxes are not provided, seal food to reduce odors, cover it well, and close the windows. Keep a clean campsite. Deposit garbage immediately in bear-proof containers or store it like food. Take baby seats out of cars; the smells they absorb may attract bears.

Backpackers

Hanging food often fails! Store all food in a portable container. Less than 3 pounds, it holds up to 5-day's food for one and fits in a pack. Metal boxes in a few wilderness locations offer backup storage. Rent/buy a container at visitor centers or markets.

Everyone

Don't let bears approach you or your food, picnic area, or campsite. Wave your arms, make loud noises, and throw small rocks toward them (avoid hitting the face or head). Keep a safe distance but be persistent. Easily abandoning your food teaches a bear that it is acceptable to approach humans; it may hurt someone in the future. If a bear does get food, however, never try to take it back.

Wilderness

Over 800,000 acres of these parks are designated wilderness. They offer outstanding opportunities for you to enjoy both solitude and challenge. Thank you for following minimum-impact, no-trace guidelines to protect the wilderness!

Wild places include hazards, and help may not be available. Be prepared to be fully self-reliant. Many trees have died from drought, which may increase hazards from falling trees and branches; be careful where you linger or camp. See Be Safe, page 10.

Wilderness permits are required for all overnight trips. After the 2017 summer quota period (5/26 through 9/23/17), permits are free and self-issued 24 hours/day outside the visitor center closest to your trailhead (see page 2). Information you provide on the permit may be helpful should search and rescue be needed. The 2018 quota period is 5/25 to 9/2/18; the permit fee during that time is $10 plus $5/person. Permits can be reserved by email or U.S. mail beginning March 1.

Jennie Lakes & Monarch wildernesses in the National Forest (USFS): Permits are not required but please complete a registration card at Jennie Lakes trailheads; information is used to manage the wilderness effectively. USFS requires a free fire permit for any open flame; downloadable from www.fs.usda.gov/sequoia.

Camping in the park's "frontcountry" is permitted only in campgrounds. Camping or sleeping in vehicles is not allowed in parking lots, pullouts, picnic areas, or trailheads in the park.

Rules & Recommendations

Don't Lose Your Brakes

Slow down, but don't ride the brake; brakes will overheat and fail. Instead, always downshift when going downhill (in automatic vehicles, put the gearshift on 1, 2 or L). The engine gets louder but it saves your brakes and prevents accidents.

Use Turnouts & Prevent Car Fires

Hot brakes & mufflers easily start car and forest fires. Stop only on paved areas, not on grass.

Avoid Overheating on Hot Days

Going uphill, turn off air conditioner. Go slow; use low gear. If overheating, turn the heat and fan on high until you can stop safely in a paved turnout.

Cold Nights Mean Ice

Watch out for ice in wet or shady spots on roads.

Emergency Car Repairs

For a tow: 559-565-3341 then press 9 (24 hours). In Sequoia Park only, 24-hour AAA for lock outs, jump starts, out-of-gas, minor repairs: 565-4070.

Bicycles

Ride on roads, not trails. Obey traffic rules. Wear light colors at night. Under age 18: helmet required.

Firearms in these Parks

Discharging a firearm in the parks is illegal. Visitors with firearms are responsible for understanding and complying with all applicable California, local, and federal firearms laws. People who can legally possess firearms under federal, California, and local laws may possess them in this park, but may not bring them into any federal buildings.

Vehicle Limits, Winding Roads

Fire & Smoking Restrictions

Wood or charcoal fires are prohibited in low-elevation park campgrounds (Potwisha, Buckeye Flat, South Fork) and picnic areas (Hospital Rock and Foothills/Ash Mountain). Gas, propane, alcohol, and tablet/cube stoves are permitted. Restrictions are also in place below 4000' in the neighboring national forest.

Smoking is not permitted outside an enclosed vehicle below 6000' in elevation, which includes the waiting areas on either end of the construction zone (see above). (Note: Giant Forest and Grant Grove are at 6500'.) Never toss cigarettes or matches out of the car or on the ground. Thank you for preventing wildfires.
