

Theodore Roosevelt Birthplace
National Historic Site

Lincoln's Funeral Procession through New York City

Witness to History

Seven-year old Theodore Roosevelt watched Abraham Lincoln's April 1865 funeral procession from a second-story window at the intersection of Broadway and 14th Street, the Union Square home of his grandfather, Cornelius Van Schaack Roosevelt. The future President Roosevelt admired President Lincoln. Today, their faces are side-by-side on Mount Rushmore.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/thrb

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE