

Booker T. Washington

Principal and Political Advocate

Washington served as Tuskegee Institute's first principal (1881-1915). Under Washington's leadership, the Institute was transformed into a major center for African-American education, while also championing the economic uplift of the southern US. Before his death in 1915, Washington and the Institute became a major political force in America.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/tuin

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE