Tuskegee Institute National Historic Site

Booker Taliaferro Washington Biographical Timeline 1856-1915

1856	Born in Franklin County, Virginia, on the farm of James Burroughs.
1865	Moved to Malden, WV with; mother Jane; brother John and sister Amanda.
1868	Attended primary school taught by William Davis.
1872-1875	Attended Hampton Institute; graduated with honors.
1875-1878	Taught school Malden, WV.
1878	Entered Wayland Seminary, Washington, D.C.
1880	Taught Night School at Hampton Institute, oversaw Native American education program.
1881	Became first principal of Tuskegee Normal School.
1882	Married Fanny N. Smith (died 1884).
1883	Completed first permanent Tuskegee Institute structure, Porter Hall.
	Birth of daughter, Portia M. Washington (died 1978).

1884	Delivered address, "The Educational Outlook in the South" before the National Education Association in Madison, Wisconsin. Speech marks the beginning of his public speaking career.
1885	First class graduates from Tuskegee Normal School.
1885	Married Olivia Davidson (died 1889).
1887	Birth of son, Booker T. Washington, Jr. (died 1945) in Tuskegee.
1889	Birth of son, Ernest Davidson (died 1938) in Tuskegee.
1890	Organized Farmer's Conference.
1892	Negro Conference at Tuskegee Institute.
	Married Margaret James Murray (died 1925) of Mississippi.
1895	Delivered address at the Cotton States International Exposition in Atlanta, Georgia.
1896	Received honorary Master of Arts degree from Harvard University.
1898	President William McKinley visited Tuskegee.
1899	The Oaks, residence of Washington family, constructed.
1900	(August 23) Founded the National Negro Business League.
1905	President Theodore Roosevelt visited Tuskegee Institute.
1915	(October 22) Last public address before American Missionary Association and National Council of Congregational Churches, New Haven, Connecticut.
1915	(November 14) Died at Tuskegee Institute.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Tuskegee Institute NHS 1212 West Montgomery Rd. Tuskegee, Alabama 36088 Telephone: 334.727.3200 Website: www.nps.gov/tuin