

HISTORIC COLUMBIA RIVER HIGHWAY

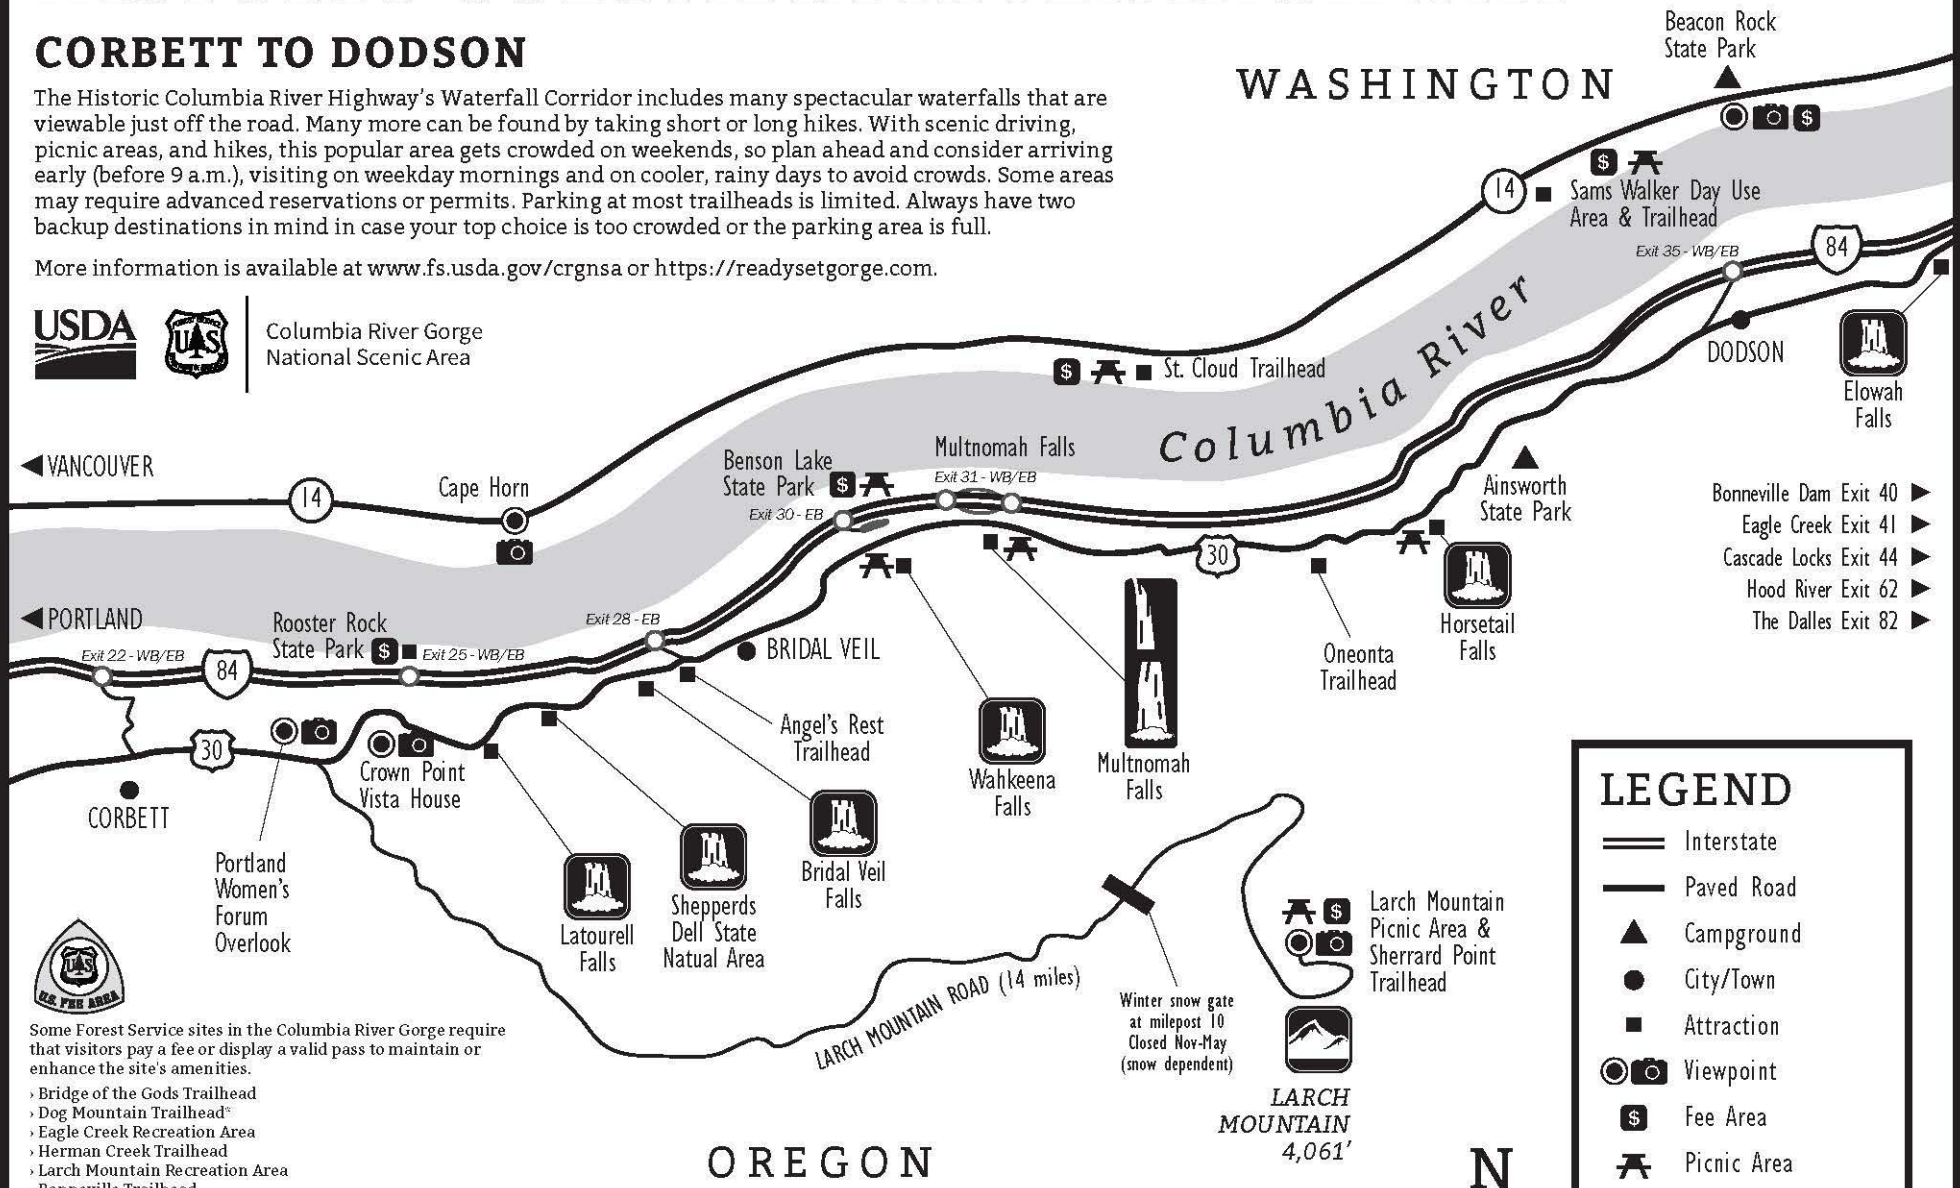

CORBETT TO DODSON

The Historic Columbia River Highway's Waterfall Corridor includes many spectacular waterfalls that are viewable just off the road. Many more can be found by taking short or long hikes. With scenic driving, picnic areas, and hikes, this popular area gets crowded on weekends, so plan ahead and consider arriving early (before 9 a.m.), visiting on weekday mornings and on cooler, rainy days to avoid crowds. Some areas may require advanced reservations or permits. Parking at most trailheads is limited. Always have two backup destinations in mind in case your top choice is too crowded or the parking area is full.
