

Do not use round material less than 8" in diameter laid lengthwise nor split material less than 10" wide.

Place entire structure below the mud line if practicable

Split cedar or fir
Not less than 4" thick.

Spikes or tree nails 1" in diameter
Latter preferred

Flatten top of sill to give good bearing.

Sill centers not further apart than 4' or 5 ft.

Not less than 30" wide

30"

Sills not less than 6"
in diameter and 4½' long.

Sills where two sections
join not less than 8" in diameter

Side view of split corduroy