

The Wolf in Yellowstone National Park

*Partners in the Wolf
Ambassador
Program*

When watching WOLVES

Wolf

26–36 inches high at the shoulder.

4–6 feet long from nose to tail tip.

80–130 pounds.

Can be black, white, gray, or a mix.

Coyote

About one-third the size of a wolf.

16–20 inches high at the shoulder.

25–35 pounds.

Can be tan to buff, sometimes gray, with orange on tail & ears.

*Funded by the Yellowstone Park Foundation.
Protecting the wonders & wildlife of Yellowstone National Park.
Learn more at www.ypf.org*

- ◆ Don't block the wolf's line of travel.
- ◆ Park in a pullout.
- ◆ Stay in your vehicle.
- ◆ Be quiet.
- ◆ Do not howl like a wolf.
- ◆ Never surround, crowd, approach, or follow wolves or other wildlife.
- ◆ Stay at least 100 yards (91 m) from wolves and bears; 25 yards (23 m) from all other animals.
- ◆ NEVER feed wolves or any other wildlife, including birds.