Army Celebrates 225th Anniversary in Yellowstone

On Saturday, September 30th, the U.S. Army celebrated their 225th anniversary with a special ceremony in Mammoth Hot Springs. The National Park Service paid tribute to the Army for its stewardship of the park from 1886 to 1918.

Principal Deputy to the Assistant Secretary to the Army for Installations and Environment, Ray Clark, joined Assistant Superintendent Marv Jensen and several other military and civic leaders in remembering the Army's service to the park and dedicated a plaque to commemorate the event. The Wyoming Army National Guard's 67th Army Band provided music along with a ceremonial color guard from Charlie Battery, 2nd Battalion, 300th Field Artillery of the Wyoming Army National Guard.

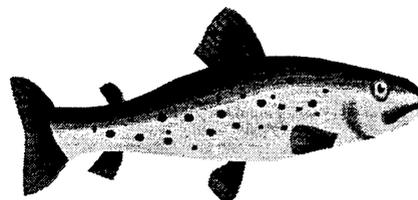

The Yellowstone News is a National Park Service employee newsletter, published monthly by the Public Affairs Office. To submit articles, notices of events, classified ads, or announcements please email yell\_public\_affairs@nps.gov, call 344-2013, or send via interdepartmental mail or fax to 344-2014. Please include your name and phone number with all submissions.

John Varley Honored for Fisheries Work

On Tuesday, October 2, at the Wild Trout VII conference at Old Faithful, John Varley, our long-time fisheries guy-turned YCR director, was presented with the Conservation Award of the Federation of Fly Fishers for his lifetime achievements in the field of fisheries management. The presentation emphasized John's many contributions to the world-wide development and popularization of special regulations as a tool for managing fishing harvest while maintaining healthy wild fish populations as part of ecological communities. John is regarded as one of the modern pioneers of special regulations management in the world of trout.

The Federation of Fly Fishers, now based in Bozeman, Montana, has been a prominent fisheries conservation organization since the 1960's, and has been an active sponsor of the entire series of Wild Trout symposiums. It was noted that John, during his fisheries biologist days in Yellowstone, was one of the presenters at the very first such conference here at Mammoth Hot Springs in 1974.

In his acceptance speech John pointed out how gratifying it has been to watch the spread of catch-and-release regulations. On his travels this year, he has seen such regulations in effect on the Kamchatka Peninsula of eastern Russia (for salmonids) and in the waters of Botswana, Africa (for tigerfish).

CONCESSION NEWS...

HAMILTON STORES PROSPECTUS PUBLISHED 10/2/00

Hamilton Stores concession contract expires December 31, 2000. The prospectus describes the scope of operations to be offered under a new contract. The term will be 15 years, and a capital investment of $5.5 million will be required. These investments are primarily non-revenue generating facilities (housing). A franchise fee will be paid to the Treasury and eighty percent of that fee will be available for related park concession projects. The amount of the fee is not yet established, because the value of the concessioner's compensable interest in their buildings must be determined through arbitration and that value will affect the fee.

Offers can be submitted by anyone and they are due in the Regional Office January 2, 2001. The offers will be evaluated the week of January 15 and the contract will be awarded shortly thereafter. Hamilton Stores will most likely continue to operate through the next season, while the arbitration takes place.

As part of another agreement, the Mammoth Nature Store will not operate as a store in the future. The same agreement includes closure of the Old Faithful Photo Shop; however, an environmental assessment (to be done this winter) will determine its future disposition.

Feel free to call Edna Good or Judy Churchwell (344-2270 or 2275) if you have any questions.

CHANGE IN TITLE

Consistent with changes in the Concessions Management Program nationwide, as a result of the Concessions Reform law, the Concessions Management Division is now the BUSINESS MANAGEMENT DIVISION. You will begin to see this change on correspondence, etc.

Planning...

Scoping for Bechler Area Development Underway:

Comments are now being accepted regarding the proposed construction of a new visitor contact station that adequately accommodates visitor services, emergency services, and storage as well as housing for seasonal employees in the Bechler area.

A development concept plan (DCP)/environmental assessment (EA) is being written in preparation for future development at Bechler. If funding should become available through the Fee Demonstration program to build a visitor contact facility or if funding becomes available through the National Park Service trailer replacement program or through other funding sources to build employee housing, the planning and compliance process will be complete.

Please send your comments by November 3, 2000 to: Planning Office, Bechler Area DCP/EA, P.O. Box 168, Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming 82190. The EA should be available for public review fall/winter 2000.

Yellowstone loses longtime historian and friend Aubrey Haines...

Aubrey Leon Haines, died September 10, 2000 at the age of 86. He was born in Portland, Oregon, August 30, 1914, to Albert Haines and Doris Blodgett. Haines was an author, historian, ranger, engineer, cartographer, teacher, and photographer, who spent his career in service to his country and his retirement recording the history of Yellowstone National Park.

We best remember Aubrey as the premier historian of Yellowstone National Park. He started his career with the National Park Service before WWII as a fire lookout on Tolmie Peak in Mount Rainier National Park and finished his 32-year career as the first official Park Historian for Yellowstone. Following his retirement to Bozeman, Montana in 1969, he and his wife, Wilma, moved to Tucson in 1984 to be near their two sons.

We are all grateful for his tireless work in preserving the artifactual and documentary record of the park's long, complex history. In the 1960's, he originated the collection now known as the Yellowstone Archives, a satellite branch of the National Archives, and gathered countless rare items, interviews, diaries, and a wealth of other primary materials into the park library and museum collections.

*Since his retirement, Aubrey continued to produce important historical works from his Arizona home. He was the author or editor of several historical works on Yellowstone. His two-volume work The Yellowstone Story (1977) may be the single most important book ever published on the park.*

Aubrey Haines will always hold a special place in Yellowstone's history. He will be sorely missed by all.

Special Notes...

- Once again, the people of Yellowstone and Gardiner have shown us how caring they are with their numerous acts of support, prayers, and kind words of encouragement during my mom's recent illness and subsequent passing away. Katie thanks you for your kindness following the loss of her grandmother, and Janet and I truly appreciate your sincere concern shown to us.
-Dan, Janet, and Katie Mahoney
- The Gardiner-Mammoth Cub Scouts would sincerely like to thank all the residents of Yellowstone and Gardiner for their whole-hearted support of our popcorn fundraiser. You've been truly generous and your support is appreciated. This means the kids can go to daycamp, build their Pinewood Derby cars and enjoy all the crafts and activities that go with childhood. The Popcorn Sale ends October 15th. Deliveries will be made after November 5. If you need MORE, or know someone who does, call Barbara Bush at 344-7928. Again, thank you very much.
-The Cubs of Pack 551
- To my friends and coworkers in Yellowstone National Park, thanks for your cards, flowers and support for my family and myself during this hard time.

Thanks for the big, beautiful card you sent while Aubrey was in the hospital. We enjoyed the many names and messages. We were so glad we were able to come up there again.

Tucson, Az.
Sept. 16, 2000

The old cancer demon came back soon after we got back home. He was in the hospital a week, then in hospice care the last week of his life. He enjoyed the trip to Yellowstone to see you and teach the class.

The memorial service at the church was perfect. He wanted cremation; so his ashes will be in a niche in the Memorial Garden at Saguro Christian Church. Calvin will scatter some of his ashes on Tolmie Peak in Mt. Rainier, where Aubrey had his first job as lookout, while he was attending the University of Washington in Seattle.

I plan to stay in my house here. My two sons are 5 and 30 miles from me, and they and their wives will help me. I have wonderful neighbors also.

Take good care, and come see us when you are in Tucson.

Gratefully,

Wilma

Dear Friends:

Thanks for the beautiful card sent to the hospital and the beautiful flowers sent to the church for his Memorial Service.

I was so glad he was able to come to Yellowstone in August and see all of you again.

Take good care of Yellowstone and come to see us when you are in Tucson.

Gratefully,

Wilma

ATTENTION QUILTERS...

A group of Quilters (and wan-na be quilters) from the Yellowstone community are organizing a quilt for the families affected by the Cerro Grande Fire. The quilt will have a "Pine Tree" motif and we ask that you observe the following guidelines.

- Square or rectangle (horizontal or vertical) - example: 12x12, 8x10, 5x20, 6x6, 11.3
- Pieced, applique or embroidery
- 100% cotton fabric in "earth tones"
- All pieces submitted no later than December 1, 2000

The pieces will be assembled into an eclectic "Pine Tree Quilt" and quilted at a community quilting bee. The quilt will be given to one of the families who lost their home in the Los Alamos fire. Please notify one of the following, if you intend to contribute:

Barb Zafft	344-7483	YELL RESEARCH LIBRARY@nps.gov
Karen Kitchen	344-6546	j&amp;kkitchen@gomontana.com
