Yosemite Valley

1 Yosemite Valley, open all year, is world-famous for its impressive waterfalls, cliffs, and unusual rock formations. You can get there via Highway 41/Wawona Road from Fresno, Highway 140/El Portal Road from Merced, Highway 120 west/Big Oak Flat Road from Manteca, and (during summer) via the Tioga Road/Highway 120 east from Lee Vining. Yosemite Valley is home to massive cliff faces like El Capitan and Half Dome, thunderous waterfalls, including the tallest in North America, and attractive meadows. While Yosemite Falls slows to trickle by August, a half-day hike will bring you to impressive Vernal and Nevada Falls. Walk to Mirror Lake, where you will see reflections of Half Dome. Gaze up at El Capitan, a massive granite monolith that stands 3,593 feet from base to summit. Whether you explore the valley by foot, bike, car, on horseback, raft, or tour, you will behold scenery that will leave you breathless and eager to see what's around the next corner.

Glacier Point

2 Glacier Point provides a commanding view of Yosemite Valley, Half Dome, and Yosemite's high country. It is located 30 miles (one-hour drive) from both, Yosemite Valley and Wawona, taking the Wawona Road (Highway 41), to Chinquapin, then turning onto Glacier Point Road. At Glacier Point, a short, paved, and wheelchair-accessible trail takes you to an exhilarating view, as you stand 3,214 feet above Yosemite Valley. A free shuttle service, which runs from Badger Pass to Glacier Point, will be required when the Glacier Point parking lot is full; however, visitors with accessibility placards, valid wilderness permits for trailheads along Glacier Point Road, or camping at Bridalveil Creek Campground will be allowed to continue. The Glacier Point shuttle will begin running at 10am. The last shuttle from Glacier Point leaves at 5:30pm, and from Badger Pass at 4:30pm. This service ends September 7.*

Wawona and Mariposa Grove

3 The Mariposa Grove of Giant Sequoias is located 36 miles (1 ¼ hours) south of Yosemite Valley via the Wawona Road (Highway 41), two miles from the park's South Entrance. Starting July 6, 2015, the Mariposa Grove of Giant Sequoias will close for restoration. The nearby Pioneer Yosemite History Center in Wawona is a collection of historic buildings associated with people and events that shaped the national park idea in Yosemite. Enjoy a horse-drawn stage ride, watch blacksmiths at work at the blacksmith shop, or hike one of the scenic trails. For more information, visit the Wawona Visitor Center at Hill's Studio, adjacent to the historic Wawona Hotel. This was once a painting studio for the 19th-century artist Thomas Hill.

Tioga Road and Tuolumne Grove

4 Tioga Road offers a 39-mile scenic drive past forests, meadows, lakes, and granite domes. It is usually open from late May or early June through sometime in November. The road's elevation ranges from 6,200 to nearly 10,000 feet, so it offers an opportunity to experience many of Yosemite's habitats. The White Wolf area, midway across the park, is the starting point for day hikes to Lukens Lake and Harden Lake. To see giant sequoias, park at the Tuolumne Grove parking area on the Tioga Road, and walk one steep mile down to the grove. Or park at Merced Grove trailhead on Big Oak Flat Road and walk 1.5 steep miles down to the grove. These groves are smaller than the more-famous Mariposa Grove, but are quieter and off-limits to vehicles. Remember: walking down is easier than walking back up.

Tuolumne Meadows

5 Tuolumne Meadows provides a glimpse of the High Sierra. The Wild and Scenic Tuolumne River winds through broad sub-alpine meadows surrounded by high granite domes and peaks. It is the jumping off place for countless hikes, whether you venture out for a day or a week. Stop at the Tuolumne Meadows Visitor Center for information about hiking to Cathedral Lakes, Elizabeth Lake, Dog Lake, Lembert Dome, or along the Tuolumne River through Lyell Canyon. Take advantage of the free shuttle service in Tuolumne Meadows or the Tuolumne Meadows Tour and Hikers' Bus from Yosemite Valley

Hetch Hetchy

6 Hetch Hetchy Reservoir, a source of drinking water and hydroelectric power for the city of San Francisco, is also home to spectacular scenery and the starting point for many wilderness trails. Due to its importance as a municipal water supply, no swimming is permitted, however. Hetch Hetchy Reservoir is located 40 miles from Yosemite Valley. The Hetch Hetchy Road is open 7am to 9pm, May 1 through Labor Day, with reduced hours during the rest of the year. Hetch Hetchy Road is accessible via the Big Oak Flat Road and Evergreen Road and is approximately a 1¼-hour drive from Yosemite Valley. Trailers, vehicles over 25 feet long, RVs and other vehicles over 8 feet wide are not permitted on the narrow, winding Hetch Hetchy Road.

- In 1906, President Roosevelt signed the legislation that unified Yosemite National Park and the lands of the Yosemite Grant Act, making Yosemite Valley and the Mariposa Grove part of the national park.
- John Muir first visited Yosemite in 1868 and spent his first few years in Yosemite as a ranch hand, a shepherd, and worked at a sawmill.

Sightseeing

Some of the famous landmarks in Yosemite Valley include:

- Half Dome, Yosemite's most distinctive monument, dominates most views in Yosemite Valley. Forces of uplift, erosion from rivers and glaciers, and rockfall all shaped this famous feature into what we see today. Cook's Meadow, Sentinel Bridge, Tunnel View, and Glacier Point, are just a few locations with stunning views of Half Dome.
- El Capitan, a massive granite monolith, stands 3,593 feet from base to summit. From spring to fall, climbers come from all over the globe to scale El Capitan.
- Happy Isles is a place to see dramatic natural processes at work. It is easily reached by shuttle at stop #16 or by walking from Curry Village. Cross the footbridges onto the isles or wander through outdoor and indoor exhibits detailing Yosemite's geologic story.
- Tunnel View, along Wawona Road (Hwy 41) provides a classic view of Yosemite Valley, El Capitan, Half Dome, Sentinel Rock, Cathedral Rocks, and Bridalveil Fall. It is spectacular at sunset or after the clearing of a storm.

EXHIBITS:

"In Our Time"

August 10 to September 13, 2015

From casual sightseers to stalwart pilgrims, Yosemite National Park lures people of all backgrounds to its hallowed valley and sculpted mountain tops. Artists have been among the most prominent groups persuaded to make this journey, dating all the way back to the late 1850's when photographer Charles Weed trekked into the valley for the first time. Other photographers, painters and writers were to follow, and the tradition continues to this day. Starting on August 10 and running through September 13, 2015, The Ansel Adams Gallery is proud to present the exhibit "In Our Time," featuring imagery from the community of artists currently living and working in the national park. This exhibit is a diverse selection of photography and paintings that showcase a great array of talent and backgrounds, that have arrived at this current place in time, drawn together by the allure of Yosemite.

"A Nobel Deed: Photography and Yosemite National Park at 125"

September 14 to November 7, 2015

While protected in a land grant in 1864, Yosemite National Park was not officially established until October 1, 1890, a noble and visionary deed by congress. At that point in history, the Yosemite region began to enjoy full protection from those that would desire to abuse the land. Today, as visitors, enthusiasts and artists, we continue to enjoy the luxury this formal act of congress afforded the people of the world. To celebrate, The Ansel Adams

Gallery is hosting the exhibit "A Nobel Deed: Photography and Yosemite National Park at 125." Showcased will be images from the turn of the century, contemporary work from artists still active today, as well as original works made by Ansel Adams himself. The show will open on September 14 and close on November 7, 2015. We hope you get a chance during your visit to stop by and explore this collection of work.

Tuolumne Grove

The trailhead for this grove of approximately 25 sequoias is near the intersection of the Big Oak Flat and Tioga roads at Crane Flat. The former route of the Big Oak Flat Road leads downhill from the parking area into the grove. The trail drops 500 feet (150 meters) in one mile. The way down can seem much easier than the uphill return to the parking lot. The trip is moderately strenuous on the uphill portion. Within the Tuolumne Grove there is an easy, half-mile, self-guided nature trail. There is no potable water at the parking area or in the grove. Be sure to bring drinking water with you.

Merced Grove

Yosemite's quietest stand of sequoias is the Merced Grove, a group of approximately 20 big trees accessible only on foot. It's a three-mile round-trip hike (about three hours) into the grove. The trail drops down 1.5 miles making this a moderately strenuous hike on the uphill portion. There is no potable water at the parking area or down in the grove. Be sure to bring drinking water with you. The grove is located 3½ miles north of Crane Flat and 4½ miles south of the Big Oak Flat Entrance along the Big Oak Flat Road (Highway 120 West). The trail is marked by a sign and a post labeled B-10.

Become a Junior Ranger

Follow these steps to earn your Junior Ranger badge.*

Yosemite National Park offers a wide variety of programs and activities for kids of all ages! To find kid-friendly programs, see pages 6, 7, 9 and 11 of the Guide for program descriptions:

Programs printed in ALL CAPS & COLOR are especially for Children and their Families

Be a naturalist. Look for these common Yosemite wild animals. If you see one, make a note by the animal's picture below. If you don't see any of these wild animals during your visit, choose one you did see and draw it in the box on this page. Where did you see it? What was it doing? Also, remember never to feed or approach an animal.

Coyote

Black bear

Golden-mantled ground squirrel

Follow these steps to earn your Junior Ranger badge.*

Have you finished this page and already receive your Jr. Ranger badge? Ready for more Jr. Ranger activities? Drop by a visitor center desk and pick up the free PSAR Jr. Ranger booklet or Legacy Jr. Ranger page to earn special patches!

1. With an adult, pick a trail to walk. See page 17 of this Guide or stop by a visitor center to choose your trail. As you go, walk quietly, watch, listen, and think.

Write the name of the trail you walked. _____

2. Explore with your senses! Record the following.

I see: _____

I hear: _____

I smell: _____

I touch: _____

3. Leave no Trace! If you see trash or rubbish, pick it up. Junior Rangers learn to be good park stewards by bringing in a bag of trash. Recycle any recyclable materials you pick up or bring along.

4. Ask a Ranger! What President signed the Yosemite Grant Act on June 30, 1864, setting aside Yosemite Valley and the Mariposa Grove for special protection? _____

5. Learn more. Go to a ranger-led program or visit with an Indian Cultural Demonstrator. What program did you attend? Have the ranger or demonstrator sign below.

Signed by: _____

6. Write down something you learned from a ranger or Indian Cultural Demonstrator.

7. Think about this. Why do people work to protect national parks?

8. When you complete this page, take it to a visitor center. There you will take your oath and receive your Junior Ranger badge.

*Expanded Junior Ranger and Little Cub programs (and the chance to earn a patch) are available in the Junior Ranger or Little Cub Handbooks, which can be purchased at any Yosemite Conservancy bookstore.

Bears and Wildlife

Enjoying wildlife safely and responsibly

Keep Wildlife Wild!

Black bears, coyote, deer, and grey squirrels are just a few of the many animal species in the park that are active year round. Learn how to help protect Yosemite's wildlife.

Store Your Food Properly.

Four thousand to 20,000 calories worth of grasses, berries, acorns, and grubs—that's the typical daily diet of most bears. It's a lot easier for a bear to eat the thousands of calories of food in an ice chest than it is to spend all day nibbling at grasses. Their incredible sense of smell allows them to detect things we can't, which helps them find food—a black bear can smell a dead deer three miles away. To top it off, bears have excellent vision and can see in color, so they recognize ice chests, grocery bags, and other food containers as potential food sources.

If you see a bear, scare it away or keep your distance.

You may not see a bear during your visit because they naturally avoid people. However, if you see one in a developed area (like a campground or parking lot), act immediately to scare it away: Make noise and yell as loud as possible. If there is more than one person, stand together to present a more intimidating figure, but do not surround the bear.

If you see a bear anywhere else, consider yourself lucky—but keep your distance (at least 50 yards, or about the distance made by four shuttle buses parked end to end). If you get too close, you will be helping the bear become used to being around people.

Bears that become comfortable around humans lose their natural fear of us and may become too aggressive. When that happens, they sometimes have to be killed.

Drive the speed limit.

The most common human-related cause of death for a black bear in Yosemite is being hit by a car. Slow down! Driving too fast is almost always the cause of these accidental deaths.

Red Bear, Dead Bear

Did you notice the red bear markers as you drove through the park? Each of them mark a place where a bear was recently hit. Every year bears, hundreds of deer, and countless other animals are killed while trying to cross park roads. Many of these deaths could have been avoided if drivers observed posted speed limits.

Please remember that Yosemite National Park is a wildlife preserve: by driving the speed limit you are helping to protect the park and its wildlife.

Backpackers:

Save Your Food, Save A Bear

Bear resistant food canisters are 2.7-pound containers that can be used to store five or more days of backpacker food when meals are carefully planned. Canisters have an inset lid that bears are unable to open. When used correctly, bears learn that—although they smell like food—the canisters are not worth investigating.

Report Bear Sightings!

To report bear sightings, improper food storage, trash problems, and other bear-related problems, leave a message for the Bear Management Team at 209/372-0322. Your call can be made anonymously. For more information regarding bears and proper food storage, visit the park's website (www.nps.gov/yose/bears).

Coyotes

Watching a coyote hunting for mice in one of Yosemite's many meadows can be an amazing wildlife experience. Coyotes are opportunistic carnivores that primarily prey on small mammals. Like bears, their diets change throughout the year with food availability.

Unfortunately, coyotes sometimes change their natural behavior to try to obtain human food. Approaching, and/or feeding coyotes can cause them to lose their natural fear of humans. Please do not stop to feed coyotes that you see along the sides of the roads. This encourages them to frequent roadsides to beg for food, endangering both coyotes and drivers.

Mountain Lions

Mountain lions are a normal and important part of the park ecosystem. They are attracted to areas with healthy deer and raccoon populations, which include many areas of the park. Although lion attacks on humans are extremely rare, they are possible, just as is injury from any wild animal.

For your safety:

Do not leave pets or pet food outside and unattended. Pets can attract mountain lions.

Avoid hiking alone. Watch children closely and never let them run ahead or lag behind on the trail. Teach children what to do if they see a lion.

What should you do if you meet a mountain lion?

Never approach one, especially if it is with kittens. Most lions will avoid confrontation. Always give them a way to escape.

Don't run. Stay calm. Hold your ground, or back away slowly. Face the lion and stand upright. Do all you can to appear larger. Raise your arms. If you have small children with you, pick them up.

If the lion behaves aggressively, wave your arms, shout, and throw objects at it. The goal is to convince it that you may be dangerous. If attacked, fight back!

Mountain lions are magnificent creatures and native to Yosemite. Generally, they are calm, quiet, and elusive. Sightings are rare, so if you spot one, consider yourself privileged!

How to Store Food

"Food" includes any item with a scent, regardless of packaging. This may include items that you do not consider food, such as canned goods, bottles, drinks, soap, cosmetics, toiletries, trash, ice chests (even when empty), and unwashed items used for preparing or eating meals.

LOCATION	FOOD STORAGE	WHY?
Your Vehicle	You may store food in your car (with windows closed) only during daylight hours. Do not store food in your car after dark: use a food locker. Remember to clear your car of food wrappers, baby wipes, and crumbs in baby seats. Never leave unattended food strapped to the outside of a vehicle or in a pickup truck bed.	Bears can smell food, even if it's sealed in the trunk or glove compartment, and they recognize boxes and bags as potential food sources. They can easily and quickly break into all kinds of vehicles!
Your Campsite or Tent Cabin	You must store all your food in food lockers—not in your tent or tent cabin. A food locker is available at each campsite and tent cabin. Food may be stored out of sight in hard-sided RVs with windows closed.	Bears may enter campsites when people are present, and some will even check food lockers to see if they're secured. Keep food lockers closed and latched at all times, even when you are in your campsite or tent cabin.
Picnic Areas & on the Trails	Do not leave food unattended. Always keep food within arm's reach. Don't turn your back to your food.	Bears may investigate picnic areas or backpacks for food even when people are present, so be alert.
Backpacking in the Wilderness	Bear resistant food containers are required throughout the Yosemite Wilderness. Hanging food is prohibited in Yosemite.	In Yosemite and the southern Sierra, bear canisters are the only effective and proven method of preventing bears from getting human food.

Protect Yourself...

Keep yourself safe while exploring your park.

There are many ways to experience the wildness of Yosemite. While the forces of nature can create unexpected hazardous conditions, with a little common sense and some pre-planning, you can minimize the risks associated with many activities.

Yosemite National Park is now celebrating its 125th Anniversary! Yosemite, along with a handful of other national parks, were created before the National Park Service existed! This leads to an upcoming 100th anniversary: On August 25, 1916, President Woodrow Wilson signed into law the “Organic Act” creating the National Park Service (NPS).

The heart of the Organic Act gave the NPS its mission and it remains the same today:

...[T]o conserve the scenery and the natural and historic objects and the wild life therein and to provide for the enjoyment of the same in such manner and by such means as will leave them unimpaired for the enjoyment (emphases added) of future generations.

In short, our mission boils down to two major points: one is protecting our parks’ natural, cultural, and historic resources. The second involves protecting our visitors; the key word for this in the Organic Act, and Congress gave it to us twice, is “enjoyment.”

One-hundred and twenty-five years of helping distressed visitors at Yosemite National Park has confirmed that ‘distress’ and ‘enjoyment’ are two words that do not belong in the same sentence. So, how do park rangers “provide for the (visitors’) enjoyment?”

One, we respond as quickly as possible to provide professional search and rescue and emergency medical services after a call comes in. However, unlike populated areas, our response time can take hours and sometimes we arrive too late to make a difference. Moreover, when we respond to a distressed visitor, the event has already started and all forms of enjoyment are already gone.

Rangers have also been focusing on preventative search and rescue (PSAR), educating visitors with hopes of preventing incidents before they happen. The most important reminder we can give to visitors is that they are each responsible for his or her own safety (and those under their care). Yosemite National Park is mostly wild and natural and the best way to enjoy the Park is to accept our own responsibility and learn what dangers threaten our enjoyment.

One-hundred and twenty-five years of experience has taught us lessons that we would like to share with you to help you enjoy your visit:

AROUND WATER

Yosemite’s waters provide a beautiful accent to our natural scenery but our swift currents and waterfalls have caused our most serious accidents. Therefore, we encourage you to enjoy our rivers from a safe distance. Most drowning victims were not trying to swim but merely wade, soak their feet, or take a picture. Here are a few tips to safely enjoy Yosemite’s waters:

- Stay back from moving water. Dry, glacially polished rocks can be slick.
- Emerald Pool and Hetch Hetchy Reservoir are off limits
- Carry enough water so you won’t be tempted to approach a stream to refill your canteen
- Do not allow photography to entice you into entering a hazardous area for a better shot or to pose a person in a dangerous place
- Never cross a fence or railing
- Always stay on the trail

HIKING: STAY ON THE TRAIL

Speaking of staying on the trail, many of our hiking mishaps occur because someone left the trail. Scrambling on boulders or traveling beyond railings or other barriers may put you one slip away from a fatal accident. Avoid shortcuts.

WELCOMING AUTUMN

Days are getting cooler and shorter. Daytime temperatures can be very pleasant which may deceive us. The air can cool quickly and fall storms can drop snow at our lowest elevations. Therefore, even on pleasant days, carry layers in your pack that will keep you both warm and dry.

YOSEMITE’S ROADS

Yosemite National Park adopted California’s motor vehicle code. In addition to following all the rules of the road, please give 100% of your attention to your driving. This promotes safety on our roadways and reduces motor vehicle conflicts with our wildlife

OUTDOOR TRAVEL

Here are a few other reminders before you hit the trail:

- Tell someone your plan and when you intend to return
- Carry a map and compass and know where you are at all times
- Check the latest weather forecast and prepare for changes
- Bring a headlamp or flashlight in case you are on the trail longer than expected.
- Drink one quart (liter) of water for every two hours of activity
- Watch for early signs of dehydration including dry lips, light thirst, and infrequent urination or brownish urine.
- Frequently snack on salty easy-to-digest foods to replace salts lost from sweating
- Admire wildlife from a distance to prevent injury to you or animals

HANTAVIRUS INFORMATION

Mice are an important part of the ecosystem, but can carry diseases harmful to humans. Hantavirus Pulmonary Syndrome (HPS) is a rare but serious disease spread to humans via the droppings, urine, or saliva of infected rodents. Not all rodents are infected with hantavirus, but infected rodents have been found throughout the US. You may come into close proximity to rodents during your visit, so it is important you take steps to protect yourself from HPS. HPS risk is greater inside of buildings or other enclosures where deer mice are present. If staying in guest lodging, please tell the housekeeping staff if you see evidence of mice in your accommodations. Do not clean up the area yourself. Keep doors to guest lodging shut and do not bring food into your cabin that is not in a sealed container. If you are camping and backpacking, do not pitch tents near rodent burrows or droppings. HPS often begins with flu-like symptoms such as aches, fever, and chills one to seven weeks after exposure, progressing to cough and difficulty in breathing. Seek medical attention immediately if you experience these symptoms and mention any potential rodent exposures to your physician. For more information on hantavirus and other environmental safety hazards visit: <http://www.nps.gov/yose/planyourvisit/yoursafety.htm>

PLAGUE

Plague is an infectious bacterial disease that is carried by squirrels, chipmunks and other wild rodents and their fleas. When an infected rodent becomes sick and dies, its fleas can carry the infection to other warm-blooded animals including humans.

To protect yourself from plague, never feed wildlife, avoid dropping food scraps that attract rodents when eating outside, avoid pitching a tent near or disturbing rodent burrows, wear insect repellent with DEET, and tell a park ranger immediately if you see a dead animal.

Early symptoms of plague may include high fever, chills, nausea, weakness, painful swelling at the site of an insect bite or lymph node, and other flu-like symptoms. If you develop any of these symptoms within 6 days of visiting an area at risk for plague in the park, see your doctor and inform them you may have been exposed. Plague is treatable with antibiotics if given in time.

AVOID CONTACT WITH WILDLIFE AND KEEP FOOD AND TRASH STORED PROPERLY

Wild animals in Yosemite can transmit numerous diseases, including plague, rabies, and hantavirus. Keeping your distance and your food from wildlife not only protects them, it also protects you from injury and exposure to diseases. If you encounter a mammal, particularly a raccoon, skunk, fox, coyote, or bat, that is behaving erratically, don’t touch the animal. Instead, report the sick animal to a park employee. In addition to keeping bears away, storing your food properly also reduces your exposure to rodents and their fleas, which may carry plague.

...and Yosemite's Wild Places

Protecting park resources

Protecting Yourself and the Park

Prepare yourself for a wild experience. Yosemite is a place where natural forces—such as rockfall, fire, and flood—are constantly at work. Here, wildlife freely roams. This is a place where wilderness prevails. The National Park Service recognizes the importance of Yosemite's Wilderness and natural processes and is bound by its mission to protect them for the benefit and enjoyment of future generations. While you are enjoying your visit, be attentive to the special permit requirements and regulations in place to protect park resources and those designed for your safety.

Wilderness Permit Details

Wilderness permits are required year round for all overnight trips into the Yosemite Wilderness. Permits are issued and bear canisters are available for rent at the Yosemite Valley Wilderness Center, the Tuolumne Meadows Wilderness Center, the Big Oak Flat Information Center, Hill's Studio in Wawona, and the Hetch Hetchy Entrance Station during hours of operation. Check the website at www.nps.gov/yose/planyourvisit/wildpermits.htm or call the park's main phone line at 209/372-0200, for additional information. Sixty percent of the trailhead quota is available in advance. Reservations are taken from 26 weeks to two days in advance of the start of your trip. A processing fee of $5 per permit plus $5 per person is charged to each confirmed reservation. Check the park's website for trailhead availability and call 209/372-0740. Forty percent of the trailhead quota is available for first-come, first-served. First-come first-served permits are available, same day, at opening and the day before starting at 11am.

Permit Required to Hike Half Dome

Permits to hike to the top of Half Dome are required seven days a week when the cables are up for 2015, May 22 through October 12, conditions permitting. A daily total of 225 preseason lottery permits have already been issued for 2015. In addition, approximately 50 permits will be released by daily lottery throughout the season, based on estimated under-use and cancellation rates (exact number may change throughout the summer). Applications for daily lotteries will be accepted two days prior to the desired hiking date between midnight and 1pm. To apply, visit Recreation.gov or call 877/444-6777. A non-refundable application fee applies to all submissions and a use fee applies to winning applicants. Finally, a daily quota of 75 Half Dome permits will be available to overnight users with an appropriate wilderness permit (use fee applies). These permits may be acquired through early reservations (50 per day) or day before walk-up (25 per day). Rock climbers who reach the top of Half Dome without entering the subdome area may descend on the Half Dome Trail without a permit.

More information is available at: <http://www.nps.gov/yose/planyourvisit/hdpermits.htm>. For backpackers more information is available at: <http://www.nps.gov/yose/planyourvisit/hdwildpermits.htm>.

Rafting

Conditions permitting, rafting on the Merced River in Yosemite Valley (Stoneman Bridge to Sentinel Beach) and the South Fork of the Merced River in Wawona is open from 10am to 6pm daily to any type of non-motorized vessel or other flotation device.

- The entire length of the Merced River in Yosemite Valley is closed to all flotation devices whenever the river gauge at Sentinel Bridge reads 6.5 feet or higher. Ask at a visitor center for conditions and obey all posted signs.

- You must wear or have a U.S. Coast Guard-approved personal flotation device immediately available.

- Fallen trees and other natural debris in the river create important habitat for fish and other wildlife. Be alert—they can also create hazards for rafters.

Fishing

Fishing in Yosemite is regulated by state law. A valid California sport-fishing license is required for those persons age 16 years and older. When fishing, the license must be plainly visible by attaching it to an outer layer of clothing above the waistline.

- Trout season runs through November 15 (except Frog Creek near Lake Eleanor, which opens June 15).

- Special fishing regulations apply on the Merced River in Yosemite Valley from Happy Isles downstream to the Foresta Bridge in El Portal. Within these reaches of the river, it is catch-and-release only for rainbow trout. Brown trout limits are five fish per day. Only artificial lures or flies with barbless hooks may be used.

- The use of live or dead minnows, bait fish or amphibians, non-preserved fish eggs or roe is prohibited.

Pets

Keep in mind, daytime temperatures can reach above 100° Fahrenheit in the summer. Make sure to keep your pet cool and well-hydrated. In Yosemite, pet owners have a few rules to follow:

- Pets are only allowed in developed areas and on roads and paved bike paths. Pets are not allowed anywhere in the Mariposa or Merced sequoia groves. They are not allowed on trails, in wilderness areas, or where signs are posted prohibiting them.

- Pets must be on a leash (6 feet or less) or otherwise physically restrained.

- For the courtesy of others, human companions are responsible for cleaning up and depositing pet feces in trash receptacles.

- Pets are not allowed in any lodging facilities or other buildings within the park and are not allowed in some campgrounds.

- Pets may not be tied to an object and left unattended.

Bicycling

Each season, plants are crushed from bicycle travel in meadows, campgrounds, and picnic areas. Please respect park resources and keep bicycles on paved roads and paved bicycle trails. Bikes are not allowed to travel off paved trails. Mountain biking opportunities are available in designated areas outside of Yosemite.

Yosemite Guardians

Visitors to Yosemite National Park are the park's most important guardians. With nearly 4 million people watching over its special plants, animals, historic, and archeological sites, imagine how well-protected these park resources could be!

During your visit to Yosemite be aware that there are people who either unknowingly or intentionally harm park resources. Please contact a park official if you see any of the following illegal acts:

- Feeding or approaching wildlife
- Collecting plants
- Hunting animals
- Collecting reptiles and butterflies
- Picking up archeological items, such as arrowheads
- Using metal detectors
- Driving vehicles into meadows
- Biking off of paved roads
- Camping outside of designated campgrounds
- Possession of weapons inside federal facilities
- Possessing or using marijuana, including medical marijuana
- Operating an unmanned aircraft system ("drone")

If you see activities that could harm people or park resources, jot down any descriptions or a vehicle license plate number and call the park dispatch office at 209/379-1992.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

To find out more about Yosemite National Park regulations visit www.nps.gov/yose/planyourvisit/yoursafety.htm and find a copy of the Superintendent's Compendium. This document is a compilation of designations, closures, permit requirements, and other restrictions made by the superintendent, in addition to what is contained in Title 36 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Chapter 1, Parts 1 through 7 and 34), and other applicable federal statutes and regulations.

The Mist Trail to Vernal and Nevada Falls

Vernal Fall footbridge: 1.6 miles/2.6 km round-trip; 1.5 hours with 400 ft./122 m elevation gain

Vernal Fall: 2.4 miles/3.9km round-trip; 3 hours with 1,000 ft./366 m. elevation gain (via Mist Trail)

Nevada Fall: 5.4 miles/8.7km round-trip; 5 to 6 hours with 2,000 ft./610 m. elevation gain (via Mist Trail)

Begin at Happy Isles (shuttle stop #16)

Trail Description:

An excellent view of Vernal Fall is visible from the footbridge at 0.75 miles (1.3 km). Beyond the bridge, at 0.2 miles, the Mist Trail and the John Muir Trail diverge. To proceed directly to the top of Vernal Fall, follow the Mist Trail 0.5 mile (0.8 km) up a steep granite stairway of over 600 steps. Prepare for slippery footing and a tremendous amount of waterfall spray in spring and early summer. The top of Nevada Fall may be reached by continuing 1.3 miles (2.1 km) along the Mist Trail.

Things to know before you go:

- Swimming is not permitted in the Hetch Hetchy reservoir or in Emerald Pool above Vernal Fall.
- Stay away from swiftly-moving water. Keep children from wandering on or near these hazards. Choose swimming areas carefully and swim only during low water conditions.
- Always supervise children closely.
- Avoid areas of whitewater, where streams flow over rocky obstructions.
- Never swim or wade upstream from of a waterfall, even if the water appears shallow and calm. Each year, unsuspecting visitors are swept over waterfalls to their deaths when swimming in these areas.

Yosemite Celebrates 125 Years

by Park Ranger Lisa Murphy

On October 1, 1890, Yosemite National Park was established by President Benjamin Harrison, becoming the nation's third national park. This year we are celebrating Yosemite National Park's 125th Anniversary.

In 1864 President Lincoln signed the Yosemite Grant, setting aside the Mariposa Grove of Giant Sequoias and Yosemite Valley for preservation, under the protection of the State of California. But as you travel through Yosemite you will become aware that the national park as you know it today entails much more than that original allocation. The national park designation of 1890 additionally protected Tuolumne Meadows, Tioga Pass, Hetch Hetchy, "The Grand Canyon" of the Tuolumne, the Tuolumne River, the Merced and Tuolumne Groves of Sequoias, Glacier Point, and thousands of acres of wilderness surrounding Yosemite Valley and the Mariposa Grove.

John Muir, an avid proponent for Yosemite in 1889, after years of being away, ventured back to Yosemite with his friend, Robert Underwood Johnson, to introduce him to the wonders of the Yosemite Valley and the Mariposa Grove of Sequoias. Muir also wanted to show him other favorite places in the area, still unprotected, in the vicinity.

Sheep in Tuolumne Meadows. Yosemite Research Library

One of Muir's favorite Yosemite locations was Soda Springs, a mineral spring in the expansive Tuolumne Meadows area that offers views of the surrounding granite peaks. When they arrived at the meadow, Muir was confronted with the heavy use the meadow had seen in his absence. Wagons had been coming through, trash had been left behind, and thousands of sheep had been grazing there. This had taken its toll on the delicate sub-alpine meadow and left a lasting impression on Muir who held this place as sacred. Muir was disappointed in his fellow man for their destruction of this place that he held so close to his heart.

In the evening that followed, an idea was hatched. Robert Underwood Johnson, the editor of Century Magazine, a prominent monthly publication that often featured articles of far away exotic places, urged Muir to write an article about the grandeur of Yosemite. In the first article he would allow the public to fall in love with these far away exotic places. Then in the second article, published a month later, he would introduce the perils that were plaguing the natural splendors and encourage the preservation and protection of these places.

This was very successful, and within a year the Federal Government set aside the greater area we now know as Yosemite under the federal protection as a national park, preserved for the sake of its unparalleled scenic beauty. And we now know its added level of importance as preservation of biodiversity in these unique ecosystems.

As we commemorate Yosemite National Park's 125th Anniversary this year, and the National Park Service Centennial in 2016, it is important to remember and exemplify Fredrick Law Olmsted's recommendation in 1865, referring to the Yosemite Grant of 1864: "The rights of posterity are more important than the desires of the present."

We are faced with similar challenges today that John Muir encountered in 1889: how can we experience our parks without loving them to death? We must each take on the responsibility to protect and preserve our parks for future generations. Instead of thinking of yourself as a visitor passing through Yosemite and other national parks, please consider yourself as a personal steward of these amazing lands. Each and every one of you belong here and will continue to have a role in the park's preservation during your visit here, as well as throughout the rest of your life.

While you are visiting Yosemite, think of how you can enjoy the park while also practicing the "Leave No Trace" philosophy. Take only pictures, keep wildlife wild, and leave the parks well-preserved for the next generation to enjoy them as we do today. Be sure to properly store your food, stay on the trails in high use areas, pack out your trash, and be an amazing steward of your parks.

As John Muir wrote, "Everyone needs beauty as well as bread. Places to pray in and play in. Where nature may heal and give strength to the body and soul alike. This natural beauty hunger is made manifest in our magnificent National Parks. Nature's sublime wonderlands. The admiration and joy of the world."
