

American Latino Heritage

LT. COL. JULIUS PETER GARESCHÉ

LT. COL. JULIUS PETER GARESCHÉ

Born in Cuba but raised in the United States, Lt. Col. Julius Peter Garesché was educated at West Point. Garesché served as Chief of Staff to Lt. Gen. William S. Rosecrans at the Stones River battle, during which he made the ultimate sacrifice when he lost his life to a Confederate cannon. This was a great loss for Rosecrans, whose friendship with Garesché was magnified by a shared Catholic faith.