

Fort Larned National Historic Site

Fallen Heroes

The military has a long tradition of honoring the heroes who have given their lives in service to their country. Soldiers at Fort Larned erected a monument in 1867 to honor their comrades who died during the Indian Wars, but many of the soldiers buried in this cemetery also fought in the Civil War.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/fols

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE