

Wright Brothers National Memorial

Amelia Earhart, First to Fly Solo Across Two Oceans

1897 - 1937

Earhart, a noted aviation pioneer, was the first woman to receive the US Distinguished Flying Cross, and an early supporter of the Equal Rights Amendment. As a woman who did what few women—or men—dared to do, she became a representative icon of a woman breaking out of traditional roles.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/wrbr

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE