

RESOURCE MANAGEMENT TRAINEE NEWSLETTER

Number 3

August 1983

NOTICE: To spread the responsibility for the newsletter around the trainees, I am passing the duties on to Chris Baumann. She will take it for 3 months and then pass it to Allan O'Connell. Anyone interested in taking it after Allan should contact Allan directly. All future input for the newsletter should be addressed to:

Chris Baumann
C & O Canal National Historical Park
P.O. Box 4
Sharpsburg, MD 21782

Training/Conferences:

Visitor Aspects of Natural Resource Management. December 5-9, 1983. Texas A & M University. This, of course, is the one anticipated and should be coordinated through the regional offices. Reservations for rooms can be made: Memorial Student Center, Texas A & M University, Colége Station, Texas 77843, or by calling (409) 845-4253.

Principles of Wildlife Habitat Management in the Ponderosa Pine and Mixed Conifer Ecosystem: a Short Course. January 9-13, 1984. Las Cruces, New Mexico. Part of a continuing series of ecosystem short courses sponsored by the Department of Fisheries and Wildlife Sciences and Cooperative Extension Service, New Mexico State Univeristy. Tuition: $175.00. Deadline for enrollment: Nov. 7, 1983. Mail to: S.D. Schemnitz, Box 4901, Dept. of Fishery and Wildlife Sciences, New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, New Mexico 88003.

First Glacier Bay Science Symposium. September 23-26, 1983. Glacier Bay Lodge. Contact Gary Vequist, Resource Manager, Glacier Bay National Park.

Inventorying Forest and Other Vegetation of the High Latitude and High Altitude Regions. An International Conference. July 23-26, 1984. Fairbanks, Alaska. Registration fee: $150.00, housing at the University of Alaska. For information, contact: Vernon J. LaBau, General Chairman, USDA, Forest Service 2221 East Northern Lights Blvd. Anchorage, Alaska 99508.

Forest Planning for Improved Management-Research and Practice: IUFRO Symposium of Forest Management Planning and Managerial Economics. Oct. 15-19, 1984. The University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan. For more information, contact: Yukichi Konohira, Faculty of Agriculture. Shinshu University, P.O. Box 1, Ina, Nagano, 396 Japan.

7th Annual International Estuarine Research Conference. Virginia Beach, VA. Oct. 22-26, 1983. and the Annual Meeting of the Southern Division of the American Fisheries Society, Asheville, NC. Nov. 6-9, 1983 Contact: FAFS Newsletter Editor Jim Tilmant, NPS So. Fla.

Research CTR., P.O. Box 279, Homestead, FL 33030.

Other:

The Eastern States Office (ESO) of the Bureau of Land Management has assumed the leadership role in the initiation of a computer data system entitled "Procedure for Describing Fish and Wildlife". The computer program is to facilitate quick access to reliable wildlife inventory data over a large land base. For information contact: Mr. Gene Ludlow, 350 South Pickett St., Alexandria, Va. 22304 (703) 235-9643.

For those of you who don't already know, two suppliers of quality forestry/wildlife/water resources field equipment are: Forestry Suppliers, P.O. Box 8397 Jackson MS 39204-9987 and Ben Meadows Co. P.O. Box 80549, Atlanta GA 30366. Send for a catalog.

Linda Dye of Biscayne National Park offers experience for trainees in: Marine water quality monitoring, marine fisheries creel surveys, marine endangered species monitoring, and control of exotic plants (Australian pine and Brazilian pepper). Contact Linda for more info.

Books:

California Riparian Systems. 135 conference papers on the ecology, conservation, and productive management of the California Riparian Systems. Edited by R.E. Warner and K.M. Hendrix. ISBN 0-520-05034-7, cloth copy $48.50. University of California Press, 2223 Fulton St., Berkeley, California 94720

Statistical Ecology Series. A 13 volume set covering all aspects of sampling, biomonitoring, and statistical analysis. For prices, contact: The Pennsylvania State University Press, University Park, PA 16802.

Catalog of Araneae. A catalog of Araneae described between 1940 and 1981. Paolo Marcello Brignoli. $90.00 Available from: Manchester University Press, 51 Washington Streets, Dover, New Hampshire 03820.

Finally:

Thanks for the support, please continue to send information to Chris so this newsletter will remain viable and assist in the completion of our IDP's.

Jon Jarvis
CRLA