

RESOURCE MANAGEMENT TRAINEE NEWSLETTER

Number 4

September 1983

Training/Conferences:

Deer in the Southwest, A Workshop. April 16-17, 1984. Corbet Center Auditorium, New Mexico State University. Contact: Dr. Norm Smith, Arizona Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit, 214 Bio. Sci. (E) University of Arizona, Tucson, Az. 85721.

Water Law Shortcourse. November 7-9. Colorado State University Fort Collins. Contact Helen White (303) 491-6222.

Midwest Fish & Wildlife Conference. December 4-7, St. Louis, Montana. Contact Ollie Torgerson, P.O. Box 180, Jefferson City, Mo. 65102, (314) 751-4115.

International Symposium on Lake & Reservoir Management. October 18-20, Knoxville, Tn. Contact: Wayne Poppe, TVA 248 401 Bldg., Chattanooga, Tennessee 37401.

New York State Symposium on Atmospheric Deposition. October 26-27. Albany, Ny. Contact Carl Schofield (607) 256-2001.

Annual Meeting Society for Range Management. February 12-17, Rapid City, South Dakota. Contact: Carolyn Hull Sieg, Rocky Mountain Forest & Range Exp. Station, South Dakota School of Mines Campus, Rapid City, South Dakota 57701.

Other:

NCR Trainees have arranged a four day visit to Shenandoah National Park, to cover a variety of resource management concerns - October 17-20. Any nearby trainees who would like to join us should contact Keith Langdon for details. FTS 933-1256, or (301) 663-9330.

NCR will also be hosting a two day workshop on Soils, November 8-9. Topics will include soil classification, impact assessment and mitigation strategies for impacted soils. Contact Stan Lock for details. FTS 472-7996 or (202) 472-7996.

Chris Baumann
CHOH