SOUTHWESTERN NATIONAL MONUMENTS

MONTHLY REPORTS 1918 – 1956*

INDEX

Description:

This collection is a general index to the Southwestern National Monuments (SWNM) Monthly Reports. Monthly Reports (or rather the ones in our possession at WACC) begin in 1918 but they initially cover only Casa Grande National Monument. This holds true for the years 1918 – 1922. *WACC does not possess any materials for the year 1923. Beginning in 1924, the Monthly Reports cover all existing Southwestern National Monuments and also sites that eventually become Monuments. Reports for the years 1918 – 1930 (excluding 1923) are unbound and were placed in folders by year (filed in ascending monthly order within the folders). 1931 and 1932 are bound together in one volume. Beginning with 1933, the reports are primarily bound in two volumes for each year, with one covering January through June and the other covering July through December, although a few are bound in one volume for the year (January – December). Initially, these reports were written solely by Frank “Boss” Pinkley, then Custodian of Casa Grande National Monument and also overseer of future Monuments. “Boss” Pinkley became Superintendent of the Southwestern National Monuments in November 1923; then Custodians of individual Monuments (under Pinkley’s supervision) reported on their respective Monuments in these monthly reports.

NOTE:

Beginning in 1918, Frank Pinkley made Monthly Reports for Casa Grande and some reference is made to other monuments that became part of the Southwestern National Monuments; they are included in this Index even though they are not strictly SWNM Monthly Reports, per se.

Five (5) new monuments were added in 1934: Chiricahua, Gila Cliff, Saguaro, Tonto, and Walnut Canyon.

Within this collection, some months and years include Headquarters Reports. Some were partially indexed while others were not indexed here.

Keet Seel is the standard spelling but it was also spelled in a variety of ways including Kiet Seel, Keet Zeel, Kitsil and Kit Seal. Chetro Ketl is the standard spelling but it was also spelled Chetro Kettle. San Ysidro is the standard spelling but it was also spelled San Isidro. The spelling used by the Report's writer is the spelling used for this Index; NPS staff and researchers should try all variations of spellings when searching the Index as well as the Monthly Reports.

For January – June 1940, the pages are bound with copies put in backwards, i.e., 1 -10, then 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, then 11 (etc.). 1944 reports are incomplete (some monument reports missing, some months missing. There are also two different unbound ("HQ") reports to the Director and to the Regional Director located in front of the March 1944 reports (they are noted in the Date/Page Number categories within this Index). Other oddities and relevant information are noted for clarification purposes.

Reorganization of the NPS removes five monuments from SWNM effective July 1953: Bandelier, Great Sand Dunes, Organ Pipe, Saguaro, and White Sands. However, Saguaro monthly reports appear in some SWNM Monthly Reports located at the beginning of the monthly reports for January 1954, September 1954, and December 1954.

Considerable mention was made of articles (sometimes partially reproduced in these Monthly Reports) for the publication called The Epitaph, which was published in 1932 in a series of four volumes. Below is a (partial) listing of the relevant articles related to the SWNM. The publication was discontinued sometime in 1932.
