

Earning the Medal of Honor

Dr. Mary Edwards Walker served as a Union surgeon during the Civil War. Andrew Johnson observed, "She has performed service deserving the recognition of the Government, which I desire to give..." With Johnson's signature, she became the first—and remains the only—woman to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/anjo

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE