

Spring Wildflowers of Cabrillo

Cabrillo is home to an array of colorful flowers. Threatened flowers include the Sea Dahlia and Coast Desert Thorn. Please take photos, not flowers.

Mariposa Lily

Calochortus weedii

Kelp Forest & Whale Overlook

Popcorn Flower

Plagiobothrys collinus

Kelp Forest & Whale Overlook
Bayside Trail

Blue-Eyed Grass

Sisyrinchium bellum

Kelp Forest & Whale Overlook

Indian Paintbrush

Castilleja affinis

Bayside Trail/Ocean View

Virgin's Bower

Clematis pauciflora

Bayside Trail

Wishbone Bush

Mirabilis californica

Tidepools/ Bayside Trail

Milk Maids

Cardamine californica

Bayside Trail

Coast Monkeyflower

Diplacus aurantiacus
(formerly Mimulus)

Bayside Trail

Coastal Deerweed

Lotus scoparius

Tidepools/Bayside Trail

California Everlasting

Gnaphalium californicum

Bayside Trail/Cabrillo Road

Fishhook Cactus

Mammillaria dioica

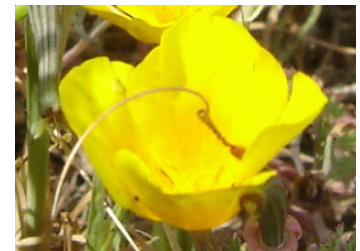

Tidepools/ Bayside Trail

Blue Dicks

Dichelostemma capitatum

Tidepools

California Poppy

Eschscholzia californica

Tidepools

Tarweed

Deinandra fasciculata
Tidepools

Wild Cucumber

Marah macrocarpus
Widespread

Black Sage

Salvia mellifera
Widespread

Coast Desert-Thorn

Lycium californicum
Tidepools

Bladderpod

Isomeris arborea
Widespread

Locoweed

Astragalus trichopodus
Widespread

Parish's Nightshade

Solanum parishii
Tidepools/Bayside Trail

Sea Dahlia

Coreopsis maritima
West of Lighthouse

Yellow Pincushion

Chaenactis glabriuscula
Path to Statue

Bajada Lupine

Lupinus concinnus
Tidepools

Bush Sunflower

Encelia californica
Widespread

Nuttall's Snapdragon

Antirrhinum nuttallianum

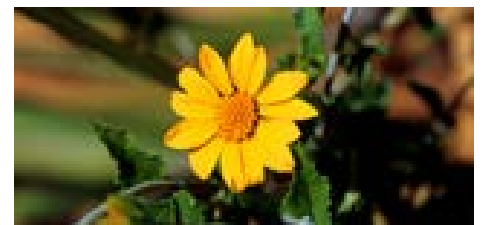

Ground Pink

Linanthus dianthiflorus
Tidepools

Shaw's Agave

Agave shawii
Widespread (All Year)

San Diego Sunflower

Viguiera laciniata

Goldfields

Lasthenia californica
Tidepools