CRATER LAKE NATIONAL PARK

THE HISTORIC CRATER LAKE LODGE

The historic Crater Lake Lodge, fresh from a $15 million renovation, provides the finest in full service accommodations and fine dining. Open mid May to mid October, the lodge has spectacular vistas in both its guest rooms and dining room.

During the day, book passage on the Crater Lake Volcano Cruises, hike miles of trails through the park, sample a variety of food at our food venues or just souvenir hunt in the gift store.

Mazama Village, located seven miles below the rim, is a great alternative. The Mazama Village Motor Inn offers 40 modern units each with a private bathroom and shower. The campground has 198 tent and RV spaces and there are public showers, laundry facilities, a convenience store and a gas station.

OREGON CAVES NATIONAL MONUMENT

OREGON CAVES LODGE

A National Historic Landmark

The Oregon Caves National Monument is a secluded wilderness area high in the Siskiyou mountains of southern Oregon. It's a perfect location to relax, hike the nature trails, read a book or play a board game in front of a roaring fire and discover the mysteries of the underground world of the Oregon Caves. The historic Oregon Caves Lodge provides a glimpse of the past while it's 1934 style pampers you with rustic elegance. There are no inroom televisions or telephones to interrupt the sounds of nature and waterfalls that surround the property. The lodge provides fine family dining as well as a 1930's style Fountain Cafe with old fashion milkshakes served in the tin cup and a Club Sandwich that will leave your taste buds begging for more.

The Oregon Caves National Monument is also a great place for board meetings, retreats, weddings and banquets. Full business services are available and the atmosphere is very conducive to completing your objectives. Call us to make your next business gathering the most successful one yet.
